COUNTY AID TO GETTYSBURG IS BEING RAISED

Gettysburg gained the most in county aid voted for various districts that have increased street or road mileage during the last year, the county commissioners' office has reported.

Receipt of mileage and population statistics for the 13 boroughs and 21 townships of the county permitted the commissioners to establish the amount that will be given in county aid this year. The commissioners had established the basis as $39 per mile and 48¢ cents per person. As a result of new street mileage established during the last year Gettysburg will receive $4,422.59 of the $51,657.83 to be given in county aid. Last year it received $3,700.

Most districts remained the same in their allotment, having no changes in either mileage or population.

The amounts allotted to the districts are: Abbottstown, $399.23; Arendtsville, $342.90; Bendersville, $301.04; Berwick Twp., $908.46; Biglerville, $491.34; Bonneauville, $331.78; Butler Twp., $2,077.28; Conewago Twp., $1,913.63; Cumberland Twp., $2,839.79; East Berlin, $604.35; Fairfield, $292.28; Franklin Twp., $3,752.52; Freedom Twp., $815.29; Germany Twp., $1,242.69; Gettysburg, $4,422.59; Hamilton Twp., $1,240.93; Hamiltonburg Twp., $1,867.85; Highland Twp., $912.21; Huntingdon Twp., $2,431.73; Liberty Twp., $2,181.27; Littlestown, $1,582.75; McSherrystown, $1,677.61; Menallen, $2,327.15; Mount Joy Twp., $2,189.13; Mt. Pleasant Twp., $2,545.07; New Oxford, $901.58; Oxford Twp., $1,278.47; Reading Twp., $2,330.38; Straban Twp., $2,766.84; Tyrone Twp., $1,964; Union Twp., $1,400.10; York Springs, $201.84.

ANNEXATION HEARING WILL BE RESUMED

A parade of witnesses including the president of Hanover's borough council and the Hanover borough manager appeared before a special board of commissioners in Adams County court Thursday afternoon to testify that it would be an advantage if Hanover is allowed to annex 307 acres of Conewago Twp. in the Diller Rd., Lincoln Drive area.

At the conclusion of Thursday's session, Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, chairman of the board, set Monday morning at 10 o'clock as the time for resumption of the hearing. Attorney Ronald Hagarman said he will have a number of witnesses at that time to give testimony that the area should continue to be part of Conewago Twp.

Attorney Oscar F. Spicer called the array of pro-annexation witnesses as representative of Hanover in the matter. Hanover borough council last August adopted an ordinance to annex the area at the request of a majority of the property owners and residents of the affected area.

WON'T CHANGE COUNTY LINE

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman is representing the Adams County commissioners at the hearing. It was noted several times during the hearing that even if the area is annexed to Hanover it will not become part of York County, but will remain part of Adams County. It was also noted that no matter whether the area is annexed, or not annexed, it will not in any way change the school district in which the area is proposed for annexation is located.

Charles Diller, developer and still owner of a large part of the area, testified he feels the proposed annexation "will benefit Adams County." He said that since the township has passed a development ordinance he has not sold any additional lots because the ordinance prohibits sale of lots the size he plans selling.

He also alleged that lack of sewer facilities prevented his sale of part of the land to an industry which was considering a site there, and that a Conewago Twp. ordinance prevented his sale of his farm to Hanover borough because the borough had contemplated a landfill there, and the township moved to avert such a sale.

CITES BENEFIT OF ONE SCHOOL TAX RATE HERE

At Monday's meeting of the Adams County Board of School Directors, County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson said: "The importance of a uniform school tax throughout the county cannot be overlooked" and today he released results of a financial study that bear out his Monday statement.

Mr. Coulson made the observation in connection with a discussion of the merits of the one-unit county school reorganization plan ordered for Adams County two weeks ago by the state Board of Education. In that single unit plan there will be one school tax rate for all of the county, the superintendent noted.

Today's study shows that because of the wide disparity now among the various school districts of the county in the amount of market valuation of real estate property per teaching unit, school tax rates in the six districts of the county would vary widely if school districts had to get all their local tax money from real estate levies.

ASK NEW TRIAL IN LAND CASE

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania today filed a motion for new trial in the land damage suit involving property of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Carbaugh, Gettysburg R. 1. A jury Tuesday handed down a verdict giving the Carbaughs $35,000 damages to their property.

Atty. Oscar F. Spicer, in filing the appeal for the Commonwealth, held that a new trial should be conducted because "the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence" and that "the court erred in refusing the defendant's motion to strike certain testimony."

Atty. Spicer also asked the court for permission to file further reasons why there should be a new trial following study of the transcript of testimony in the case.

The suit arose from the damages to the Carbaugh property caused by the relocation of Rt. 15 in Cumberland Twp. Mr. and Mrs. Carbaugh had originally asked for a board of view when they and the Commonwealth could not reach agreement on the amount of damages. Following the report of view the matter was further appealed and that resulted in the trial which ended Tuesday. The new highway, in cutting across the Carbaugh property, took the Carbaughs' home and a number of acres of land and cut off part of the farm from the remainder.

"It should be needless today to speak any words in justification of the Catholic schools in a debate over a question of roadway safety."

DEADLINE ON FEED GRAINS

Friday will be the last day growers may file applications to take part in the 1965 feed grain program. J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

Miller's office in the Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday to take care of the "late signers," he said.

So far this year 642 farmers have filed applications, compared to 638 during the 1964 feed grain program.

Only those farmers who participate in the feed grain program will be eligible for price support on their 1965 corn, barley and grain sorghum crops, Miller said. As during last year the support will be made available through loans and price-support payments.

Besides qualifying for price support, the participating grower will also earn a diversion payment for changing part of his feed grain base acreage to a conservation use. Minimum diversion is 20 percent of the individual farm's total feed grain base. Maximum diversion is 50 percent of the base, or 25 acres if that figure is more than half of the base. For diverting more than the minimum, the farmer will be paid a higher rate for the diversion.

CITES BENEFIT

County into which the county would have been divided under the rejected six-unit plan, the school tax on real estate would range from 59.4 mills to 87.4 mills if real estate levies were the only local tax source.

If the county were single school district the real estate levy would be only 67.1 mills—if all of the local tax support were to come from real estate levies.

"To offer programs of equivalent cost, citizens of one district must pay approximately 1.5 times as much local tax as citizens of another district. Is this equal educational opportunity for their children?" Mr. Coulson asked.

Presently there are more than a dozen different school tax rates in effect in the score of school districts in the county and not all of the money is raised from real estate taxes. Most districts also levy a head tax, an occupation tax and a tax on real estate transfers.

Copies of the results of Supt. Coulson's tax study are available at the county superintendent's office on Carlisle St.

Air Force

Information officer said, "Mrs. Grissom did not wish to appear here in public." He said Mrs. Young agreed to the plan to meet her husband later, in private.

The astronauts' plane set down at Cape Kennedy almost exactly 48 hours after the time when a Titan rocket launched them on an 81,000-mile flight in the world's first proven maneuverable spacecraft.

NEWS CONFERENCE

They were to remain on the Cape for extensive physical checkups and debriefings until 6 p.m., when they will ride in a motorcade to the Gemini news center in Cocoa Beach for a nationally televised news conference.

President Johnson will give Grissom and Young his personal congratulations Friday.

The two planes pulled up to the edge of the landing strip, where microphones were sitting in front of a trailer.

Grissom got out of the first plane, Young out of the second one. They strolled quickly to the microphones. Grissom was the first to speak to the assembled crowd.

"I'm all talked out," he said, drawing a laugh. "I've been going through tests for a couple of days. I'll see you all later this evening."

FLIGHT JUNE 8

Meanwhile, informed sources said that the next flight of a Gemini spacecraft would be a four-day mission beginning June 8. The Titan rocket is waiting now at this spaceport, and the spacecraft will be delivered early in April.

On that flight, one of the two U.S. astronauts will raise his hatch in space, to prove the pressure suits are space-worthy, and he may step out into space.

On the Intrepid Wednesday night Grissom, an Air Force major, and Young, a Navy lieutenant commander, made their first public comments about the historic flight.

ADDRESSES CREW

Grissom told the carrier's 2,000-man crew and her officers at a ship's party that the flight was very successful, and "accomplished everything we wanted to accomplish."

It was also on the ship that the first word came of the difficulty that Grissom and Young encountered during their more than 45 minutes aboard the Molly Brown, bobbing and pitching in four-to-five-foot waves in the Atlantic. Grissom became seasick and vomited into a plastic bag. Young also became nauseous.

Young alluded to this in his remarks to the Intrepid's crew. He told his fellow Navy men: "I'm sure glad you guys could see your way clear to pick us up."

NOT A BOAT

And, he said about the spacecraft Molly Brown: "It's a wonderful spaceship — but not much of a boat. It's got pitch, heave and roll."

Grissom became ill after 28 minutes in the wildly rolling spacecraft which obviously was not at home in the sea. A space agency spokesman said that in sea tests earlier with the spacecraft, seasickness was common, striking one out of each pair of astronauts in hour-long tests.

RECEIVE PLAQUES

The two astronauts received plaques and other mementoes from the Intrepid's crew, and late Wednesday afternoon, each got his turn at the ship's helm, steering the 40,000-ton carrier as she plowed through the Atlantic.

The medical debriefing turned up nothing startling, the doctors said. Both men were proclaimed in fine shape, with no residual problems from their flight.

The astronauts' wives and families arrived at nearby Patrick Air Force Base Wednesday night from their Houston, Tex., homes. At that point, troubled communications had prevented Barbara Young from talking with her husband since his space adventure.

"I'll try again tonight," Mrs. Young said, shepherding her two children, John, 6, and Sandra, 7.

PARADE TONIGHT

Betty Grissom had spoken with her husband by radiotelephone. She was accompanied by their two sons, Scott, 14, and Mark, 11.

Both families face a parade tonight through the nearby community of Cocoa Beach, and a visit to President Johnson Friday. "I'm awed by the schedule but looking forward to it," said Mrs. Young.

Both astronauts will face a news conference tonight.

This evening they will be the dinner guests of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Coble of Bendersville, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyer of Biglerville. The Cobles will be observing their 40th wedding anniversary and the Boyers their 33rd. Miss Vestal Stallsmith, Gettysburg, will be an additional guest. She is a cousin of Mrs. Coble and Mrs. Boyer.

Miss Mabel A. Dettler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dettler, Bendersville, and Harvey W. Knouse, son of I. D. Knouse, Biglerville, motored to Middletown, Md., on Thursday, March 25, 1915, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Knouse, Brysonia.

They were married there in the afternoon in the Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. Wilmer A. Hartman, an uncle of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Hartman, daughter of the minister, played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor. A wedding dinner was served at the parsonage following the ceremony and afterward Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Knouse and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Knouse motored to New Oxford where they spent two days visiting relatives and friends. They returned to the bride's home in Bendersville when a dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Dettler.

ANNEXATION

ceive sewer and water and other services, and that it should develop rapidly because of those factors and the fact that smaller lots can be sold for homes if they can be connected to the sewer. Such development, he said, will bring additional tax revenue to Adams County. He agreed, however, that if the area is annexed to Hanover, Conewago Twp. will lose the taxation on that area.

Paul Lawyer, a Diller Rd. resident who said he did not sign the petition for annexation, said he now favors annexation because he can obtain sewer service from Hanover much cheaper than from the proposed Conewago Twp. sewer system.

Roy Lamb, a Diller Rd. resident, said: "We've got to do something about sewage. I've got five children and the septic tanks are causing all kinds of problems. We all live in fear of typhoid fever. I know I do."

He said he also did not like the attitude of the Conewago Twp. Authority which is considering construction of a sewer. "At the first meeting the chairman held we could not enter into the discussion and I couldn't hear what ever it was they were whispering about up at the head table."

"I NEED A SEWER"

Bernard Eugene Elliott, of Diller Rd., held he prefers annexation "because I need a sewer now. When it rains raw sewage is lying on top of the lawns. In 1962 Conewago Twp. said we were going to get a sewer system and I haven't seen it yet."

James E. Sneeringer, Lincoln Drive, Conewago Twp., said he laid a four-inch tile drain across his property "but I still have a lake behind my house." He also said: "I think we would have better representation in the body that governs us if we join Hanover." He held it is "difficult to get in touch" with the township authorities.

BETTER POLICE PROTECTION

All of the Conewago Twp. residents testifying had praise for Township Policeman Thomas Carbaugh. Some said: "He is doing a fine job." They felt they would receive better police protection from Hanover because Hanover had at least three policemen on duty at all times and has a man "at the telephone at all times" who can send police by radio to where they are needed. They also noted that all 11 policemen in the borough are on call at any time. In addition trained fire police are on emergency call if needed.

Paul Worcester, president of Hanover council, said: "We feel that it would be to Hanover's advantage if the area is annexed to the borough. We are concerned with the health hazard from the septic tanks overflowing right beside one of our playgrounds. We are concerned too about mosquitoes and flies. Fifty-two percent of those who use our playground there are from the township. We would certainly appreciate having taxes from their parents to help pay the cost."

HEAR MANAGER

He also said Hanover could provide sewer service to the area cheaper than Conewago Twp. He said, "Our problem would simply be one of extending an existing system. In addition, if the township builds a sewer system and sends its sewage into Hanover for treatment we are going to charge what it costs to treat that sewage plus something more. Conewago would, in some places, be duplicating mains we already have installed."

Joseph O'Brien, Hanover borough manager, said he felt annexation would be to an advantage to both Hanover and the area. He held that if the area is annexed "it will provide Hanover with more industrial sites as well as residential sites." He also noted that "zoning would go into effect immediately. Fortunately the area is not too well developed so far and if zoning is to have any value it must be done before an area is ruined for zoning by haphazard construction."

TRADING ACTIVE

NEW YORK (AP)—A show of strength by steels and selected issues featured an irregularly higher stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

The steels seemed to be bolstered by record sales of their best customer, the auto industry, brokers said.

Gains of most steels were fractional, some going to a point or so, but activity in some of the leaders was fairly heavy.

Aerospace defense issues were somewhat higher on balance but there was nothing of the "war scare" complexion about the market.

Red China

"It is probable there will be a big increase in the supply of anti-aircraft weapons. There is also the likelihood of more and better aircraft being sent in."

"A number of Chinese Communist MIG 17's are known to be in Hanoi at present, but these would be no match for U.S. jets. Peking may send in some of its more up-to-date jets and these could offer serious resistance to U.S. aircraft."

In Washington, a State Department spokesman said the Chinese declaration was being studied. He refused to comment further. Officials in Washington have expressed the view that the Viet Cong needs military and economic supplies rather than foreign manpower.

REAVER FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Georgia Reaver, 89, widow of Stanley C. Reaver, who died Saturday at her home in Taneytown, were held Tuesday afternoon at the C. O. Fuss and Son Funeral Home, Taneytown, with her pastor, Rev. William F. Wiley, officiating. Burial was made in the Lutheran Church Cemetery. The boy pays for his uniform and equipment, unit dues, activities, handbooks, camping, etc. The chartering institution provides the meeting place, heat, light and furnishings and leadership with the leaders buying their own uniforms and paying their own way. The community, through campaigns such as we are currently engaged in, provides the resources which no one chartering institution can provide, the office and field services, technical guidance, training, program materials and year around camping facilities that enable the chartering institutions to effectively utilize the Scouting program."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY YEARS AGO

"Business as usual" was being conducted today at the Annie M. Warner Memorial Hospital on the twenty-fourth anniversary of its opening.

The local institution, which was erected for the treatment and use of any residents of Adams county and the surrounding territory, was opened March 15, 1921.

The movement for the hospital began in 1919 when the late John Warner donated land and about $30,000 for the construction of the building. The institution cared for 436 patients in the first 12 months of operation and during 1944 admitted 2,007 patients. The grand total of patients treated to date at the hospital has climbed to over 23,700, an average of nearly a thousand a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Ridinger, 28 Fourth street, have received word their son, Lt. George Richard Ridinger, who is a platoon leader of a rifle company with the 98th Division, stationed somewhere in France, will be on a three-day pass to Paris next week. Major J. M. Shende, who is stationed in Paris. They spent three hours together.

Major Shende formerly taught history at Gettysburg high school. Lt. Ridinger was a member of the class of 1944 of Gettysburg college.

Capt. Joseph Reaser, twice wounded on the western front, arrived Thursday evening in Gettysburg on leave.

Cpt. Reaser, who earned the now famous title of "Indian Joe" when he burned out several German soldiers sheltered in a house, has received the Purple Heart, Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star and the Bronze Star.

Sister Mary Coleman, member of the Maryknoll order and sister of Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg National Park superintendent, was among the civilian prisoners liberated from the Los Baños internment camp below Manila, Doctor Coleman has been notified.

Sister Coleman, who has been in the Philippines since 1929, had been interned by the Japs after the fall of Manila about three years ago. In a letter written to Doctor Coleman in the fall of 1943, she said she was then held in the Santo Tomas camp, but apparently had been moved since that time.

The message from her said she is in good health.

Miss Elizabeth Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Small, Gettysburg, was capped as a cadet nurse at Temple university hospital, Philadelphia, last Sunday following her nurse's probation period of six months. She was one of a class of 80 to receive caps. Her parents attended the exercises.

Ensign Donald Ulrich, son of Mrs. John Ulrich, of Gettysburg, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy. A veteran of service in the European theater where he commanded an LCI during the invasion of southern France, he now receives his mail in care of the fleet postmaster at San Francisco. He is on military leave from the teaching staff of Lincoln school and entered service nearly two years ago.

Today's Talk

THE ART OF SELECTING

What we are is the sum total of the things that we select out of life. We select our friends. We select the one vocation for which we seem best suited. We select the things that we like to have about us. We select that which gives us satisfaction and happiness.

We select where we want to live and work. All of these selections are what influence us in what we do, act, and live. There is a definite art to all the selections we make. Their appearance cannot be over-estimated.

The selection of a person's books in a home often furnishes a key to that one's thoughts and ambitions. You learn a great deal about a person when you learn the books that he or she reads. We are always interested in a person who is happy and enthusiastic in the work that he or she does.

Said Elbert Hubbard: "Happy is that one who has found his work." It is far more important to be engaged in doing the thing that you like, and are happy in doing, than to be engaged in something that merely pays you money. The pure pleasure of achievement far outweighs all monetary gains.

I have noted that simple acts of kindness, and simple gifts often bring the largest return in happiness. Dr. Albert Schweitzer selected to give of himself and his rare talents to an isolated community in Africa, where he could administer to the needs of the natives, and where he built a hospital to render service to all who needed him. Not until he had given up fame as a musician, teacher, and physician on the European continent, and devoted his life to his new work, where he was most needed, did he exclaim that he had finally found genuine happiness. Dr. Schweitzer is now in his ninetieth year.

There are opportunities for useful service of an endless variety. Only as we wisely select do we discover the joys of life, as well as the hidden forces within us, that control and give to us the largest amount of personal happiness.

Just Folks

JUST LIKE A MAN
"Isn't that just like a man?" Ever since the race began Wives have used that questioning phrase, Speaking of their husbands' ways. Drops his paper on the floor! Never thinks to close a door! Stays out late whenever he can! "Isn't that just like a man?"

Weekends when the skies are blue,
Though there's gardening to do, Suddenly he'll pack his grip And vanish on a fishing trip. When invited out to dine, "No," he'll say, "we must decline."

That night I've another plan.
"Isn't that just like a man?" When the skies turn bleak and drear,
Off he'll go for ducks or deer. Creature of both mind and whim, Thoughtlessness is part of him. To the children's pleas for pie, "Ask your mother!" he'll reply, Leaving her the joy to ban. "Isn't that just like a man?"

ARSON ARREST IN 3 BLAZES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wayne Brooks, 16, of Philadelphia, has been arrested on charges of arson in connection with three fires at a center city apartment building.

The first fire, at the Nash apartments, occurred last Feb. 21, and caused $1,000 damage. The second, on March 7, was listed as a minor blaze; the third, last Sunday, forced residents to flee to safety and caused an estimated $20,000 damage.

Brooks was arrested Wednesday after authorities noticed he had visited his grandfather, James Lowther, 64, custodian of the apartments, on each of the days the fires broke out.

Brooks was slated for a hearing today at the Youth Study Center.

WOMAN LOSES CEYLON REINS

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike's five years of leftist rule in Ceylon ended today. Dudley Senanayake, a pro-Western conservative, was sworn in as prime minister.

Jubilant crowds lit firecrackers and cheered as Senanayake entered Queen's House to be sworn in before Gov. Gen. William Gopallawa. There were more cheers as he drove off to put flowers before a Buddha in a suburban temple.

In a statement he appealed to all to "work together to make this a happier place for a free democratic people to live in under the rule of law in peace and prosperity."

Mrs. Bandaranaike, the world's only woman prime minister, resigned because of her Freedom party's defeat in the parliamentary elections Monday. It ran second with only 41 of the 151 seats.

The new government is expected to move quickly to improve relations with the United States and other Western nations.

CORDOVA, Md. (AP) — An Air Force cargo plane caught fire and fell from an overcast sky into a pine woods Wednesday, killing all six crewmen aboard.

The plane, a C124 Globemaster, crashed within a half-hour after taking off from Dover Air Force Base, Del., on a routine training flight.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SETTLE LIBEL FOR CASH AND "GOOD" NAME

NEW YORK (AP) — A libel action brought by Langdon P. Marvin Jr., growing out of an allegation that he whisked away a young woman on the eve of her wedding, was discontinued Wednesday in Supreme Court.

Marvin, godson of Franklin D. Roosevelt, discontinued the action in return for a payment of $5,000 and a signed statement by Jean Broward Shevlin Gerard, granddaughter of a one-time governor of Florida.

Mrs. Gerard, in an affidavit filed with the court, said in part:

"I was not kidnaped, seized, abducted or terrorized by Mr. Marvin. I made no complaint against Mr. Marvin, and I never had any intention of doing so."

REGRETS ACTION
"I regret very much any adverse effect . . . upon Mr. Marvin's reputation, and I hope that this statement will correct any unwarranted impressions which that publicity may have created."

The statement said that the publicity alluded to occurred on or about June 21, 1959, the weekend that Mrs. Gerard, then Miss Shevlin, was scheduled to marry Lt. Col. James Watson Gerard.

Mason City, Iowa, police said Miss Shevlin, socially prominent in Minneapolis, Minn., told them in a signed statement that she went to Marvin's hotel room in Minneapolis to tell him that she intended to go through with her marriage with Gerard.

JFK CONSULTANT
Police said she also told them she was taken by Marvin to Mason City and fled from him there.

Marvin was a legislative consultant in Washington for the late President John F. Kennedy. Mrs. Gerard is the daughter of the late Edwin Leonard Shevlin, a lumber man, and granddaughter of Napoleon Bonaparte Broward, a governor of Florida. Since the incident she has married Lt. Col. Gerard of Paris, France.

Marvin's attorney said his client now is a research consultant to "several U.S. Senate and House members whose names he will not disclose."

The attorney said Marvin originally had filed a $10,000 suit in the libel action. He described it as "a token suit."

Supersonic Bomber Breaks 2 Records

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The huge XB70A supersonic bomber broke two aviation records — heaviest weight and continuous supersonic flight — in its eighth test flight.

A spokesman for North American Aviation said the craft took off Wednesday at the heaviest weight any airplane has ever flown — more than 500,000 pounds.

During its 100-minute flight it logged a record 80 minutes at supersonic speeds ranging up to about 1,400 miles per hour.

North American Aviation test pilots Al White and Van Shepard took the craft to a maximum altitude of 56,000 feet, the spokesman said.

LOCUSTS DUE IN WESTERN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Agriculture Department has warned farmers in Fayette, Greene and Washington Counties that the 17-year locust is expected to infest those areas of southwestern Pennsylvania this spring.

The last outbreak of the destructive insects in the three counties occurred in 1948, the department reported Wednesday.

Entomologists said the locusts are due to appear in relatively small areas of the state during the next four years with a statewide outbreak expected in 1970. The last appearance of 17-year locusts anywhere in the state was three years ago in 15 eastern counties.

The department said locusts are identified by broods, which are limited to fairly definite areas. Thus it is possible to predict emergency years of each brood.

The locusts usually emerge during the last week of May and are quite numerous in the first week of June.

Female locusts damage trees by cutting slits in branches and laying eggs in the openings.

Kentucky May Save 18 Covered Bridges

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Highway Department is checking the possibility of bypassing bits of Kentucky history in building modern roads.

The bits of history are 18 covered bridges. Two years ago there were 37.

Highway commissioner Henry Ward said Wednesday he has ordered a survey to see if it is practical to let them remain and build modern spans nearby.

MILK PROBE IS CONTINUING

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The state continues hearing testimony today in its inquiry into illegal rebates in the milk industry.

The probe is being conducted jointly by the state Justice Department and the Milk Control Commission.

Testimony Wednesday confirmed that the Keystone Dairy of New Kensington received $418,977 in kickbacks from the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association.

John R. Birmingham, 25, a vice president of Keystone, said the rebates were paid to the dairy from 1958 to 1964. A Dairymen's League official testified last week that his organization had paid the rebates.

Birmingham said he received $25,153 in rebates from 1961 through 1964. His father, Harry R., president of the dairy, received $297,115 from 1958 to 1964 and Paul H. Musser, a former vice president, got $98,709 from 1958 to 1961, Birmingham said.

Birmingham said he regarded the rebates as a part of his salary. He said the money was deposited in his personal account in the Chemical Trust Co. of New York "for certain company reasons."

Canner Track Squad Will Depend On Six Vets; Host In Triangular Meet Monday

Biglerville High School's track outlook for this season has been termed "dark" by its coaching staff, with only six lettermen among the 85 candidates now preparing for the campaign.

Graduation last year took a big toll and further losses have taken place due to transfer, injury and illness.

Among the veterans on hand is John Pitzer, a veteran sprinter, who is encountering trouble rounding into shape due to an injury sustained during the wrestling season. Last year he won two Blue Mountain League titles in the sprints.

Improvement is expected by two other veterans, Terry and Owen Taylor. Terry is counted upon in the high hurdles, shot put, discus and broad jump. Owen has moved to the quarter mile, 220 and mile relay where he shows promise. Larry Dennis, javelin; Ken Sell, pole vault, and Jerry Scarpate, both hurdles, round out the veterans upon whom Coach Dor Sterner and his assistant, Jack Emanuel and Parker Coble, are depending.

SHOW PROMISE

Other promising candidates include: Bruce Slonaker, high jump; Jim Wright, broad jump; Vincent Spangler, shot put; Bill Sterrett, discus; Phil Carey and John Oyler, quarter mile; Jeff Taylor, sprints; Jim Bosserman and Barry Jacoby, relays.

The Canners lost a top javelin thrower when Dennis Kane transferred to Gettysburg where he is now a member of the Warrior squad.

The success of the coming season will depend largely upon how the new candidates come through, according to Coach Sterner.

HEAVY SCHEDULE

Biglerville is scheduled to open an ambitious schedule Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock when it is host to Littlestown and Berwyn Springs in a triangular meet.

The complete schedule:

March 29 — Littlestown, Berwyn, home; April 2, Waynesboro, away; 7, "Boiling Springs, away; 14, "Shippensburg, away; 17, Shippensburg State College invitation meet; 21, "Big Spring, home; 26, "Camp Hill, home; 28, "Gettysburg, away; May 5, Hanover Relays; 8, Blue Mountain League meet at East Pennsboro; 13, Scotland, home, 6:30; 15, District 3 meet; 17, New Oxford, away. BULLETS AND 76ERS WIN IN 1ST PLAYOFFS

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Wilt Chamberlain has the reputation of being a poor foul shooter in the National Basketball Association.

The Big Dipper, as Wilt likes to be called, made only 408 of 580 free throws during the regular NBA season that ended last Sunday.

He made only six of 18 in the opening game of the Eastern Division semifinal playoffs at Cincinnati Wednesday night, but two of the six came in succession in an overtime period and gave the Philadelphia 76ers a 119-117 victory over the Royals.

HAWKS LOSE AT HOME

The home-court advantage didn't stand up in the opening of the Western Division semifinals, either, as the Baltimore Bullets edged the St. Louis Hawks 108-105.

Two free throws by Walt Bellamy in the last 17 seconds clinched the triumph for the Bullets on the Hawks' hardwood.

The second game in each of the best-of-five semifinals will be played Friday with Cincinnati at Philadelphia and Baltimore again at St. Louis.

Chamberlain's stomach ailment "definitely affected his playing" in the opinion of Philadelphia Coach Dolph Schayes.

BIG DIPPER IS KEY

Nevertheless, the Big Dipper was a key factor as the 76ers rallied to win after trailing by 10 points at the half 64-54.

He scored 19 points in the regulation game that ended 108-105 then added seven points in the overtime including his two vital free throws with seven seconds on the clock.

Hal Greer's 37 points and Al Bianchi's basket that forced the extra period also were big factors for Philadelphia. Jack Twyman got 25, Jerry Lucas 22 and Oscar Robertson 21 for the Royals.

A 12-point burst with Kevin Loughery and Bailey Howell each getting six points, brought Baltimore from behind a 92-89 score and gave the Bullets sufficient margin to withstand a late St. Louis rush. The Hawks crept to within one point at 106-105 before Bellamy's two free throws iced it for the Bullets.

BARONS OUT OF CUP PLAYOFFS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Cleveland Barons are out of the American Hockey League Calder Cup playoffs this season, but they are closing out their campaign with a rash of victories.

The last place Barons of the Western Division won their third in a row Wednesday night by whipping the Western Division champs, the Rochester Americans, 4-3 and snapping the Amers' nine-game winning streak.

Ron Attwell led the Cleveland attack on his home ice with goals including a 20-footer in the second period that put the Barons ahead for good.

Gene Ubriaco's goal on a 20-footer at 6:57 of a sudden death overtime gave Hershey a 3-2 home victory over the Pittsburgh Hornets and moved the Bears into second place in the Eastern Division.

Pittsburgh led 2-0 going into the third period, but Hershey rallied to tie on goals by Roger DeJordy at 8:59 and Michael Harvey at 9:42.

Buffalo is at Quebec in the only AHL game scheduled tonight.

Big 10 Swimmers May Take Title

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Two Big Ten opponents with strong team balance renewed their swimming rivalry today, and the winner could win the national collegiate title.

Both Indiana and Michigan rated as strong challengers to defending champion Southern California as the three-day meet got under way.

The Big Ten threats were helped by a scoring change which for the first time will give points to the top 12 finishers in each event. In previous years only six places won points and a team with a few individual stars could win the title.

TORRES EYES BATTLE WITH EX-CHAMPION

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

HILLSDALE, N.J. (AP) — If Jose Torres wins the lightweight title from Willie Pastrano next Tuesday night, he wants to step up into the heavyweight class. Which is only natural — that's the way to boxing's big gold and glory.

But the 28-year-old Puerto Rican may be motivated by more than money and fame — a smoldering grudge against a former friend and stablemate.

"I think fightin' Floyd Patterson would be beautiful," Torres said recently during a break in training. "It would sort of get even for what he did to me."

FORMER MANAGER

Cus is Cus D'Amato, former manager of both boxers who guided Patterson to the heavyweight championship. He now is Torres' trainer, but has no official connection with Patterson.

It is Torres' contention that Patterson proved less than grateful by dropping Cus.

However, there is more to Torres' antipathy toward Patterson than D'Amato. Insiders say he resented all the attention and success that went to Patterson when they were stablemates. And then there is the tale of the vanishing $100,000.

Torres was promised a shot at Paul Pender's share of the middleweight title three years ago, for a $100,000 guarantee. One day the money was supposedly as good as on the line — the next day it wasn't. Torres claimed the money was to have been loaned by Patterson.

NOT FRIENDS NOW

"I thought he was my friend, but no more," said Torres.

Despite an impressive seven years as a pro and a 34-1 record, Torres is getting his first chance at a title in the match with Pastrano at Madison Square Garden.

Torres figures he can add 10 pounds, putting him in the low 180s, giving him more power and without losing speed.

That would make him fairly light for a heavyweight — but perhaps he remembers Floyd Patterson isn't much bigger.

TRAINER SAYS CLAY IS KIND, MODEST MAN

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, Muhammad Ali to his Black Muslim brothers, is one man to the general boxing public and another to those who know him best—his family and friends.

A shouting, ranting maniac at times and a loud-mouthed braggart at others, he becomes soft-spoken, warm and modest when removed from the spotlight.

'HUMBLE AS BABY'

"This boy is humble as a baby," says Cassius' assistant trainer, Drew (Bodini) Brown, former trainer for Sugar Ray Robinson.

"He is like a little Joe Louis. There is so much kindness in him it sometimes is taken for weakness. He loves people, especially little people, hungry, destitute and lonesome people who live in the slums. He is crazy about little children."

"All this loud boasting stuff is just an act, and not like him at all. When he predicts he's going to knock somebody out in a certain round, he comes to me and says, 'Bodini, what if I don't do it like I say. I'm scared to death.'"

ERRATIC EMPLOYER

Bodini, only member of Clay's entourage who has not become a Muslim, says the champion fires him every day and then relents and takes him back.

"He hands me money and says, 'Go pay your rent,'" the trainer adds.

The trainer's manager, Angelo Dundee, calls Clay a model athlete who never causes any trouble. Cassius' parents insist their son always has been a thoughtful, religious youngster with a soft heart. They have expressed fear that he is being duped by Muslims.

"They just don't know," Cassius said. "They are old-fashioned. They read all this stuff about people from New York going to Chicago to kill me and naturally they're worried. They don't mind my religion."

ENJOYS CHAMPIONSHIP

The champion said his greatest thrill in being king of the heavyweights is being able to put on some old boots and coveralls and walk through the ghettos and slum sections of the world.

Cassius owns homes in Chicago, Los Angeles, Louisville, Detroit and Miami. He has three Cadillac and a bus with a diesel engine for cross-country trips. He owns a palace in Pakistan and holy mountain in Ghana, gifts of his friends. But he eyes none of these as his place of retirement when he's through boxing.

"I'm going around buying farms in various places," he said. "When I'm through fighting, I want to be out in the country, with a lot of fresh air, chickens, horses and little kids around me. That's my idea of heaven on earth."

BILL RUSSEL NAMED MVP IN NBA CIRCUIT

BOSTON (AP) — "That's fine," he said, "but I'll take the championship first."

The comment from Boston Celtics center Bill Russell Wednesday, when told he was picked as the Most Valuable Player of the National Basketball Association, was typical of the way he has faced the entire season.

Before the season started, Russell was one of the few in the league who felt the Celtics would put on a tremendous drive and win their ninth straight Eastern Division crown with ease.

TRIBUTE TO WALTER

"We want to win this one for Walter," he said. "We want to win it big."

He said he and the other Celtics would go all out as their tribute to owner Walter Brown, who died last fall.

Russell proved the prophet as the Celtics set an NBA record with 62 victories in one season, finishing 14 games ahead of runner-up Cincinnati.

The result of the balloting by a U.S. Basketball Writers Association committee surprised no one. It was the fourth time Russell was voted Most Valuable Player in the past five years.

The award also duplicated the honor voted him by the NBA players two weeks ago.

"A TEAM SEASON"

Russell said: "I am very gratified. It is a fine award and a fine tribute, but I would like to accept it on behalf of my team and the city of Boston."

Russell said this has been strictly a team season.

"Every man on the Celtics has been part of it and the people here have been great to us, just great."

The bearded pivotman, considered the best defensive player ever in basketball, received a total of 283 points in the balloting, compared to 156 for runner-up Jerry West of Los Angeles. West was the only other player to draw a first-place vote.

Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati finished third, just one point behind West, and Sam Jones of the Celtics was fourth with 69 points.

CAN WIN TITLE THIS EVENING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Red Wings, given a big assist by the Toronto Maple Leafs, can just about wrap up the National Hockey League championship by beating the New York Rangers tonight.

A victory for the Red Wings on their home ice over the Rangers would give them 85 points and assure them of at least a tie in the season that ends Sunday.

Second place Montreal was beaten Wednesday night by the Toronto Maple Leafs 3-2 and kept from tying the Red Wings for first place.

The Red Wings and Canadiens each will have two games to play after tonight's New York at Detroit contest. Both Detroit games are against the tough fourth-place Maple Leafs while Montreal meets Boston and New York, the last two clubs in the league against which they already have chalked up 19 victories this season.

LIBERTY BELL OPENS FRIDAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The 1965 harness racing season in Pennsylvania opens Friday night at the Liberty Bell Park, when the William Penn Racing Association holds the first of 25 scheduled racing nights.

The track, which will offer nine races nightly until April 24, will be closed Sundays and Good Friday.

The spring meeting is one of three sessions scheduled at Liberty Bell this year. The Liberty Bell Racing Association has a 50-night meeting which opens June 4, and William Penn will hold another 25-night meeting beginning Sept. 11.

The highlight of the spring meet, track officials say, is the $25,000 Overtrack Pace on Friday, April 23. Bret Hanover, who won all of his 24 starts in 1964 and Rival Time, owned by pro basketball star Wilt Chamberlain, are among the 25 three-year-old pacers that have been nominated to the race.

Clemente To Miss Pirates' Opener

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Right-fielder Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates said Wednesday night he probably will miss the opening game of the baseball season next month.

Clemente, who has been ill with a form of malaria or paratyphoid, said he will leave for the Pirates' training camp at Fort Myers, Fla., this Saturday but will not be able to begin working out immediately.

Four Stakes Races Listed For Pimlico

BALTIMORE, Md.—A program of four stakes races, culminated by the 90th running of the $150,000 Preakness on Saturday, May 15, has been announced for Pimlico's 24-day spring meeting opening Monday, April 19.

In releasing the stakes schedule, Pimlico Vice-president Louis Pondfield noted that the four stakes are endowed with $205,000 in added monies, marking an increase over last year's spring program.

Increased this year for its 33rd running on Saturday, April 24, is the Riggs Handicap, a mile-and-a-half grass test for three-year-olds and up. The Riggs, set for the first Saturday of the Preakness meeting, carries a purse of $20,000 and is expected to attract a full field of grass stars.

Following the Riggs on the stakes program will be the $15,000 Walden Stakes on Saturday, May 1; the $20,000 Black-Eyed Susan Stakes on Saturday, May 8, and the $150,000 Preakness on Saturday, May 15.

CHOOSES LUCKY DEBONAIR FOR DERBY ON MAY 1

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Shoemaker has chosen Lucky Debonair as his Kentucky Derby mount and he has seen nothing to make him sorry he made his selection weeks in advance of the 91st running of the colorful horse race at Churchill Downs May 1.

"He's a nice running horse," said Shoemaker of Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Santa Anita Derby winner and current future book favorite to take the Big One the first Saturday in May. "He's easy to rate and will give you his best at all times—not a big horse but well built."

Special Services Fret At Restriction In Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — As an experiment in unconventional warfare, the U.S. Special Forces appears to have encountered heavy going in Viet Nam.

"We should be out there in the mountains fighting the Viet Cong at their own game, but where are we?" said a U.S. Special Forces officer at one of the group's camps.

"We are stuck in camp, and the enemy can see our every move. We have lost control of our troops in the Vietnamese."

"And to cap all of this, we will be posted soon to advise district chiefs. That is not a job for Special Forces, certainly not the Special Forces I thought I was joining."

IN A NUTSHELL

These comments put in a nutshell the feelings of many Special Forces personnel now serving in the Viet Nam.

Originally a free-wheeling organization established as a counterinsurgency force, the Special Forces blossomed under President John F. Kennedy, who saw in their unorthodox concept an answer to the burgeoning trouble of Southeast Asia.

More recently, Special Forces seems to have been having a lean time of it.

OBJECTIVES NOT MET

A U.S. officer said:

"When I volunteered out of the artillery and into the Special Forces a few years ago, my commanding officer told me, 'You're making a mistake. The generals will kill the Special Forces and your career will die with it.'"

Whether the generals are killing the Special Forces, or whether they are dying a natural death, there is no doubt that the objectives of the Special Forces have not been met in South Viet Nam.

Up to about one year ago they were making progress with one of the objectives — winning over mountain tribes to the government cause.

VARIOUS PROBLEMS

Scores of special teams were operating in Viet Nam's mountains, working with primitive mountain people and supplying weapons to fight the Viet Cong. There were misgivings about the program.

For one thing, the Montagnards were getting thousands of weapons to fight the Viet Cong today — who would they use them against tomorrow? And some of the Montagnards defected to the Viet Cong.

There was also the problem of allegiance to South Viet Nam. The Montagnards dislike lowland Vietnamese, but they appeared to love the tough U.S. Special Forces men who worked amongst them.

Eventually, the U.S.-created Montagnard "strike forces" shed to Vietnamese control. Many were turned into popular force units under command of province chiefs.

SOME REGRETS TODAY

The loss of control over the Montagnards is now regretted by many officers.

Many U.S. officers charge also that the strike forces are kept in static defense of permanent installations.

Other officers said the Special Forces have been reduced to an advisory effort, as has the regular U.S. Army in Viet Nam.

1,100 ARE THERE

"The only control we have is that we control the purse strings. This is more than other advisers have and it can be made extremely effective in getting what we want."

"But it isn't enough," a captain said.

A U.S. spokesman says about 1,100 U.S. Special Forces personnel are scattered throughout the country in 40 camps. The main center is at the coastal resort of Nha Trang.

111 Mayors Given White House Bids

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 111 mayors are the latest to receive an invitation to the White House for a dinner with President Johnson and briefings by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The White House gave no date for the dinner, but Mayor Frank Graves of Paterson, N.J., said the invitation was for March 30.

Mayors of cities with more than 100,000 population are being invited. At least one mayor is being invited from each state, even if it has no city of 100,000.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joseph F. Madera, who took a priest and two policemen on a wild ride at gunpoint through part of New Jersey in 1956, has been convicted of a $700 holdup of the State Finance Co. last July 1. Madera was found guilty Tuesday by Judge John J. McDermott 3rd after waving a jury trial. Sentencing was delayed pending a neuropsychiatric examination.

SUPPORT FOR RIPPER BILL IS GROWING

HARRISBURG (AP) — Support is mounting for legislation that would abolish the State Milk Control Commission and create a milk stabilization board in its place.

A bipartisan proposal was introduced in the House Tuesday with 30 sponsors, just 24 hours after a similar bill was proposed in the Senate.

The measure would completely abolish the Milk Control Commission and end retail and wholesale price controls while providing for a referendum of farmers in each area to find out whether they want producer controls.

MANY OTHER BILLS

Under provisions of the bill, the Milk Stabilization Board would be created in the Agriculture Department. All price-fixing powers of the new board would end after two years unless continued by the legislature.

Other bills introduced in the House would:

—Provide reimbursement for taxes paid on fuel used by ambulances and fire equipment.

—Establish a 40-hour work week for Pennsylvania state police with time-and-a-half pay for overtime.

—Create a governor's advisory committee on migrant labor to establish decent standards of health, welfare and public safety for the thousands of migrant laborers who come into Pennsylvania every year.

—Change the work week of state employees from not less than 35 hours to not more than 35 hours.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Judge Juanita Kidd Stout sentenced John Johnson, 15, and Frank Glenn, 14, to six-year prison terms Tuesday for the beating death of an elderly man last month. The victim, Ralph Felcetti, 75, died of a heart condition worsened by the beating, according to an autopsy.

Buyers Stock In Liberty Bell

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mrs. Mary E. Green, widow of Congressman William J. Green Jr., has purchased half the voting stock in Philadelphia's Liberty Bell harness racing track.

Mrs. Green, whose purchase was disclosed Tuesday, exercised an option granted to her husband by the late James J. Clark, builder of the track.

Clark, who owned all 100,000 shares of the track's class B voting stock, gave Green an option to purchase half of them. They have a nominal value of $1.05 a share. The track, which is located on the Bucks-Philadelphia county line, also has 100,000 shares of non-voting stock, valued at $10 a share.

NORTH V. NAM BLASTED FOR FOURTH DAY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese planes raided North Viet Nam again Wednesday. It was the fourth consecutive day of strikes against the Communist north.

U.S. Air Force planes flew support roles on the raid, a U.S. military spokesman said. Presumably he meant they attacked Communist antiaircraft positions.

There was no immediate word on how many planes were involved, what targets they hit or the results of the strikes inside South Viet Nam.

American military authorities said 12 U.S. Air Force B57 jet bombers carried out 20 strikes within South Viet Nam Wednesday.

12 FLY SORTIES

Twelve B57s flew sorties in Phuoc Tuy Province, in the coastal area east of Saigon, and eight B57s were in action in Kontum Province, some 250 miles north of Saigon, spokesmen said.

The spokesmen said they had no information on targets hit or the results of the strikes inside South Viet Nam.

Hanoi radio broadcast a threat by the Communists of South Viet Nam to call for international military help if the United States continues to expand the Vietnamese war.

A lengthy message by the political arm of the Viet Cong, the Central Committee of the South Viet Nam National Front for Liberation, said:

"If the U.S. imperialists continue to commit U.S. combat troops and those of their satellites to South Viet Nam and continue to extend the war to North Viet Nam and Laos, the South Viet Nam Liberation Front will call on the peoples of various countries to send youth and army men to South Viet Nam."

In England, daguerreotypes were featured as sensations at carnivals, along with electric eels and "invisible girls."

Bobby Kennedy Plants Flag On Summit Of Mt. Kennedy In Memory Of Late President

By DALE NELSON

WHITEHORSE, Yukon Territory (AP) — A small flag fluttered from the summit of Mt. Kennedy today, planted there by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy as a memorial to his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy.

The New York Democratic senator, a novice climber, reached the top of the previously unclimbed 13,900-foot peak Wednesday after a day and a half of climbing.

He was expected to be flown from a base camp to Whitehorse this morning. A Royal Canadian Air Force plane from Ottawa, ordinarily used to fly Canadian dignitaries, waited at the airport to take him to Seattle for a plane connection to New York.

EIGHT IN PARTY
Kennedy and seven members of a National Geographic Society party, which he asked to accompany, climbed from a camp at the 11,500-foot level Wednesday.

As they toiled up the final few yards, using their ice axes for walking sticks on a slope of about 20 degrees, they waved to newsmen and expedition officials in planes overhead.

The flag Kennedy placed at the summit appeared of a dark hue, although its exact coloration was not known. He fixed it upright and stood back a few feet, his head slightly bowed, looking toward it.

5 ABOVE ZERO
The red and orange parkas of the climbers gleamed in the sunlight. A wind estimated at 15 to 18 miles an hour whipped up the snow occasionally. The temperature was 5 degrees above zero.

The ascent began Tuesday morning from an 8,500-foot base camp to which Kennedy and others in the party were flown from Whitehorse in a Royal Canadian Air Force helicopter.

The climbers followed a path originally charted during a 1935 expedition to explore the area. The path was marked with three-foot pegs at 150-foot intervals by members of an advance group.

WAS MIDDLE MAN
Their course took them to the head of Cathedral Glacier where the higher camp was located. From there they climbed to the right onto a plateau about the size of a football field. The summit is a pyramid rising about 400 feet from this plateau. They took the west face of the pyramid, the easiest route.

The senator climbed as the middle man on a rope between two veterans of the 1963 American expedition to Mt. Everest, James W. Whittaker of Seattle and Barry Prather of Ellensburg, Wash.

Mt. Kennedy was named by the Canadian government last year in memory of the assassinated president.

Probation For Boy Who Killed Father
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Judge Bernard J. Kelley of Quarter Sessions Court has sentenced a 16-year-old Philadelphia boy, Charles Lin, to five years probation for the fatal shooting of his father.

Young Lin pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter Wednesday, admitting he shot his father, William A. Lin, 57, on Dec. 30, 1963. The boy said he saw his father choking his mother during a quarrel.

In passing sentence, Judge Kelley said, "I think this boy should be helped to eradicate this. . . . The court believes he will not ever appear again in court. . . ."

TO MEASURE PROGRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional task force will soon visit Philadelphia to assess the city's progress under the federal government's "War on Poverty" program.

Rep. Hugh L. Carey, D-N.Y., who heads the group, said April 5 was tentatively chosen for the visit, but that a change in schedule might be necessary if the House takes up the Medicare bill that week.

The task force will make itself available to all interested parties, but will not hold formal hearings in Philadelphia, Carey said.

Sir:

Through the medium of your paper I would like to add my remarks to those of Mrs. Daniels advocating kindergartens here in the public schools of Gettysburg. It seemed quite ironic that shortly after her letter appeared it was learned that Fairfield is planning to open a third one!

Why are the outlying districts able to have kindergartens and we are not?

Would Offer Free Tuition In Penna.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Paul Mahady, D-Westmoreland, says he plans to introduce legislation to provide free tuition at the 14 state colleges and to create four new institutions.

Mahady said Wednesday the cost of free tuition to the state would be about $8.5 million annually. Tuition at the schools now is $250 for teacher courses and $300 for liberal arts courses.

Mahady said it would be impossible to determine the construction costs of four new state colleges, but he estimated the initial faculty cost at $8 million annually.

HOUSEWIFE TO GET AWARD OF MEDICAL UNIT

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Medical Society says it will present its Benjamin Rush Award this year to Mrs. Samuel Grindlinger, a 63-year-old Altoona housewife who spends her spare time aiding the unfortunate.

At the same time, the society announced Wednesday that the Orwigsburg VFW Ambulance Service in Schuylkill County would receive its 1965 group citation.

Both awards will be presented at a ceremony here April 22. The society said Mrs. Grindlinger has done occupational therapy work at the Veterans Administration Hospital and works regularly with patients at the Altoona Hospital.

The Orwigsburg organization, composed of 15 volunteers, staffs the ambulance with trained first aid advanced course personnel. The group gave 231 pints of blood free to Schuylkill County residents in 1964, and also donated 19 pints of blood to needy patients outside the area. The ambulance crew answered 255 calls and traveled 7,997 miles last year, the citation said.

INJUNCTION IS REFUSED
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Judge Alfred L. Luongo has turned down a prisoner's request for an injunction to keep him out of a police lineup.

Judge Luongo ruled Wednesday that a defendant in lawful custody does not have his constitutional rights violated by being made to appear in a lineup.

Lawyers representing an indigent prisoner, charged with burglary, who is unable to post bail, sought the injunction. The lawyers contended a lineup for persons under bail is illegal under Pennsylvania and U.S. law.

"It is by no means true that one who is free on bail has a constitutional right to be protected from possible identification by the victim of a crime for which he has not formally been charged," the U.S. District Court judge said.

LEGISLATURE CHALLENGE TO GOVERNOR ON BILL ON BUSES

By VINCENT P. CAROCCI

Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP) — A Senate Democrat challenged Gov. Scranton Wednesday to line up Republican support for a bill to provide bus transportation for parochial and private school pupils.

"If Gov. Scranton wants a bill to reach the floor of the Senate, he's going to have to get the Republicans in the committee to vote for it," said the Senator, who asked to remain anonymous.

The senator is a member of the Senate Education Committee which opens four days of public hearings this morning on the question of tax-supported bus transportation for parochial and private school pupils.

TWO IN COMMITTEE
Two such bills are in the hands of the committee—an administration bill introduced in the Senate and a House-passed bill initiated by the Democrats in that chamber.

In a related development, Sen. Clarence D. Bell, R-Delaware, who introduced the administration bill, said he favored the committee releasing the House bus measure after the hearings are completed.

"I would just as soon see the House bill come to the floor (of the Senate) to avoid duplication of effort and wasted time," Bell said. He is not a member of the Education Committee.

"I agree with Gov. Scranton that it really makes no difference which one we get," Bell added.

ADAMS FIRST
Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare, representing Scranton, was listed as the lead-off witness for the hearings, which run through today and resume again next Wednesday and Thursday in Harrisburg.

A total of 55 witnesses are scheduled to testify, with each one offered 15 minutes to set his views down orally. He may supplement his oral testimony with a written statement.

The list of witnesses released by the committee Tuesday included government officials, representatives of religious organizations, labor, civic and education groups.

Twelve witnesses were scheduled to appear Wednesday and 14 more today. Another 16 are on tap when hearings resume next Wednesday, and 13 more for the final day, April 1.

Kelso Entertains Laurel Park Crowd
LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Kelso, the greatest money winner in horse racing, toured the oval at Laurel race course Wednesday with fans crowded at the rail. But it was only for show. He had no competition.

Mrs. Richard C. duPont showed Kelso, winner of $1,893,362, as a promotion for a benefit fund. He is scheduled to appear at other tracks in the nation on the same mission.

Mrs. duPont and trainer Carl Hanford have not announced whether the 8-year-old gelding will race this year.

COUNTY FAIRS ASKING BIGGER SHARE OF FUND

By JACK LYNCH

Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP) — Almost half of the hundreds of thousands of dollars poured into the Pennsylvania Fair Fund is going unclaimed and county fair operators are trying to do something about it.

The 1959 Harness Racing Act, which legalized pari-mutuel betting, provided that 25 cents of every dollar coming to the state from the tracks be placed in a special fund to help agricultural fairs.

In the first two full years of track operations, a total of $1.7 million was earmarked for the fair fund.

BALANCE RETURNED
But because of restricted maximum payments for each of the approximately 200 fairs participating, only $926,000 was paid out in the two years.

As provided by law the remaining $779,000 was returned to the state treasury for general government operations.

This money is forever lost to the fairs, but the Pennsylvania State Association of County Fairs has asked the legislature to increase the distribution formula.

The association apparently stands a good chance of succeeding because bills to increase the payments have won committee approval in both houses of the legislature, a good omen.

The identical bills would retain the 25 per cent share of harness racing revenues for the fairs, but they would make considerable changes within that framework.

Although the $2,000 payment for operational expenses to qualified fairs also would be retained, the state would for the first time share in the cost of premiums for judging.

$10,000 LIMIT
The bills would permit payments of 50 per cent of the total amount of judging premiums with a limit of $10,000 to each fair.

They also would allow the state to share in offering of purses and expenses connected with harness racing at fairs.

There would be a flat $5,000 payment for racing programs, plus up to $5,600 additional for special races for two and three-year-old colts and fillies. The special races would be computed at the rate of $500 to $700 for each such race.

County units of the 4-H and FFA and FHA farm youth organizations holding fairs would continue to be eligible for the $2,000 operational expenses provided they do not participate in other fairs as a unit. They are not eligible for the additional premium and racing money. If, after all eligible fairs have drawn their maximum payments, any money is left, it would be diverted to agriculture promotion and research. The bill provides for up to $25,000 of the excess to be used for agriculture promotion and up to $100,000 for research.

The two proposals have the support of the State Agriculture Department.

Proponents of the bills believe that even more money will be available in future years, but that unless the formula is changed the total amount of payouts would not vary very much.

ELECTRON GUN AT STANFORD GENERATES RECORD BEAM

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON

AP Science Writer
STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Testers fired Stanford's big electron gun the other day when only one-fifth of its barrel was in place. The shot made scientific history.

The first 600-foot section generated an electron beam of 1.3 billion electron volts — BEV — the highest energy of any linear accelerator in America. It's already the longest.

When completed next summer, the new tool for exploring the nature of matter will be almost two miles long and will fire a 20-BEV beam of electrons to rip holes in the curtain of unimaginably minute subnuclear matter.

AID TO SCIENCE

Considered as a "microscope," the accelerator will enable the physicist to study subparticles only one-thousandth of one-billionth of an inch long that exist for less than one-billionth of a second.

Its $114-million price tag makes it the most expensive piece of research apparatus ever financed by the federal government.

The Stanford Linear Accelerator Center—SLAC—will cost about $20 million a year to operate. Its electric bill alone will run about $2 million, for it will consume as much power as nearby Palo Alto, population 56,000. The complex will employ 1,000 persons.

FOR RESEARCH ONLY

The dime-sized beam will have no other use than research. Stanford university's contribution to the project has been know-how and 480 acres of university land. The university team of high-energy linear accelerator builders — science's most experienced — conceived and designed the machine, and is supervising its construction.

The accelerator will be put into continuous operation early in 1967, after a six-month shake-down, as a national facility open to physicists from all over.

TAXPAYER FOOTS BILL
A 10-member program advisory committee — only two members are from Stanford — will help Director Wolfgang K.H. Panofsky science and schedule proposed experiments.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission — meaning the taxpayer — is footing the bill for both construction — authorized by Congress in 1961 — and operation.

The barrel of the gun is a baffled four-inch copper pipe. Adjustable mountings will keep its 10,000-foot length in near-perfect alignment.

The accelerator is housed in a 10x11-foot, steel-reinforced concrete tunnel buried 25 feet deep to guard against radiation.

Quakers Protest War In Viet Nam
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ten members of the Friends Peace Committee of Philadelphia, a Quaker group, and an organization known as the Students Peace Union are staging a daily vigil before a downtown Army Recruiting Station, in protest against the war in Vietnam.

Jerry Schwartz, a member of the Peace Committee, explained Wednesday, as the group began its silent vigil, that its purpose is "to point out that children are being killed in the war in Vietnam."

He said his organization believes the fighting in Vietnam should be stopped and that the United States should withdraw its troops.

He said the group will continue the vigil indefinitely, standing quietly in front of the recruiting station every weekday, and distributing pamphlets.

Says Continents Have Convulsions

By A. I. GOLDBERG
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Undersea detectives may be on the verge of solving the Case of the Catapulting Continents.

It's a disputed theory that the continents are in continuous convulsion — up, down and sideways — but one American scientific detective with important discoveries to his credit thinks they are.

He is Prof. Bruce Heezen, an Iowa who teaches geology at Columbia University and gets his kicks from discovering high mountain ranges deep under the ocean.

DIG UNDER OCEAN

Heezen was one of 2,000 scientists from 24 countries who worked on the six-year UNESCO project, now ending its first phase, to explore what's under the Indian Ocean.

Preliminary findings — huge north-south scars on the bare ocean floor far from India, and a comparison of rock makeup — have convinced him that the whole Indian subcontinent has pushed 3,700 miles toward the North Pole in the last 100 million years.

That's pretty slow catapulting. Those who support the theory of continental drift advanced in 1912 by Alfred Wegener, a German meteorologist, figure the drift is about an inch a year, impossible to lay a tape measure on.

PROBE SIMILARITIES

What Wegener did — and you can do — was to look at a map showing the east coast of South America and the west coast of Africa. They could nestle right into each other.

Then he studied the amazing similarity in rocks, fossils and earth structure on both sides of the Atlantic and stated the probability that they were part of one land mass at one time. He figured that Europe and North America could have moved apart in a few hundred million years.

Wegener didn't have the fine sonar devices of the modern scientist to back up his theory. And paleomagnetic studies were not as advanced as they are now.

2 CONTINENTS

In 1937, a South African geologist, A. L. Du Toit decided that the ancient rock structures of the African and South American shorelines were similar, too. He deduced there had once been two continents: A northern Laurasia (Europe, Asia and North America); and a southern Gondwanaland (South America, Africa, Antarctica, plus India and Australia), separated by a seaway called Tethys.

One odd aspect of the detective mystery is that the Indian subcontinent moved north while the other continents split on an east-west line.

But Australia is acting oddly, too. A paleomagnetic rock study man, Prof. S. K. Runcorn

PLCB ANSWERS SOME CRITICS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Liquor Control Board says it has long urged abolition of the waiver clause in license suspensions and separation of administrative and enforcement functions.

Answering recent criticism, the board said in a statement released Tuesday that such changes have been advocated to the legislature for the past decade, but without success.

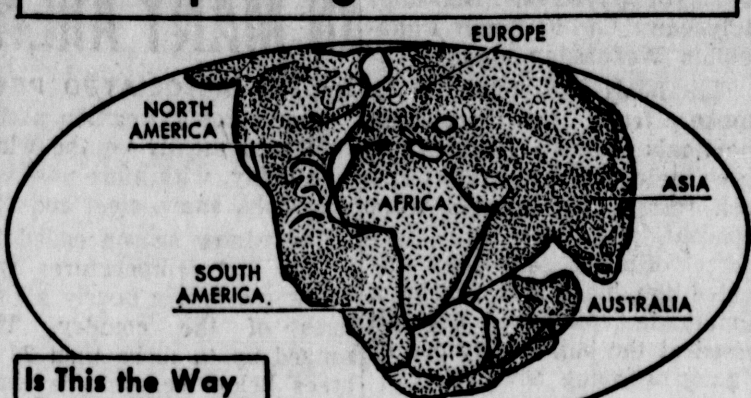

All three members of the board joined in issuing the statement, which the board said was prompted by a series of articles appearing in a Philadelphia newspaper (Inquirer).

The members are Abraham D. Cohn, chairman, and Dean R. R. Fisher, both Democrats, and James E. Staudinger, Republican.

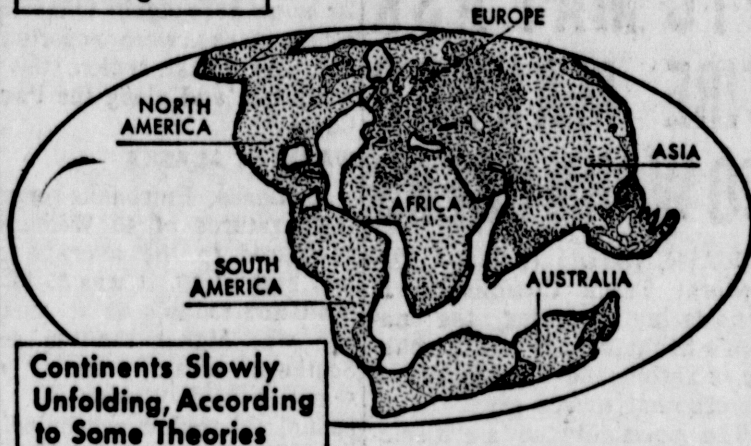

The board said: "As Gov. Scranton pointed out in his March 18 press conference, the board since 1956 has sought elimination or drastic modification of the statutory provision permitting acceptance of $10 a day compromise in lieu of suspensions.

"The board is gratified to learn the governor is preparing to request such action at this session."

Aged Seaman Plans Atlantic Raft Trip

NEW YORK (AP) — William Willis, 71, who sailed for 14 months across the Pacific in a steel-pontooned raft for 12,000 miles, now is considering a similar voyage across the Atlantic.

He told newsmen Tuesday it might be "five or six years from now" before he tries the Atlantic trip. He said his Pacific voyage was made in the raft "The Age Unlimited" to prove that age is no barrier to accomplishment.

Dr. Harris B. Stewart Jr., chief oceanographer of the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, and British, Soviet, Indian and Philippine scientists played valuable roles.

The north-south scars, far from the mud deposits of the Indian continental shelf, are to Heezen one telling bit of evidence that India, Pakistan and neighboring countries are part of one land mass ever pushing northward into the Russian-Chinese land mass. The continuing northward pressure pushed rock strata on end to form the Himalaya Mountains, according to the theory.

MAGNETIC ROCKS

But the clincher for the supporters of the theory is that rocks dredged up from the ocean far south of India's present coast line show the same magnetic qualities as rocks now found on the Indian mainland.

"Project Mohole," the U.S. program to drill into the earth's crust near Hawaii starting in 1968, may give further evidence whether the continents ride high on the crust and sometimes sink, rise or move sideways.

Music By Satchmo Pleases Germans

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP) — Louis Armstrong brought his trumpet and his raspy voice deep into Communist East Germany Tuesday night and made music that sent thousands of fans into ecstasy.

Playing at the Leipzig Fair grounds, old Satchmo blew his horn and sang his favorites where a few years ago his kind of music was forbidden.

Armstrong is the first big jazz name from the West to tour East Germany. He is playing four concerts in Leipzig, seven in East Berlin and one each in Magdeburg and Erfurt. He also is visiting Romania and Yugoslavia.

The 4,300 seats for each of his Leipzig shows were sold out the day after tickets went on sale a week ago.

TV "FIRST" IN MOON SHOTS ON WEDNESDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television cameras, which have already opened so many new windows on the world, literally took us to the moon Wednesday morning.

For 15 minutes, the three networks fed us pictures through the Jet Propulsion Laboratories in Pasadena as the Ranger rocket moved to its destruction on the face of the moon.

The superimposed lettering on the screen said "Live from the moon," which in itself was pretty hard to believe. As the picture sequence developed, the contours, the hills, the craters and the peaks came closer, closer. And suddenly there was blackness and just the sound of enthusiastic clapping from the audience assembled in Pasadena.

For most of us, the uninitiated, the pictures didn't look like much, but the mere fact of seeing them gave us a front row seat on science.

These have certainly been a pair of splendid days for television.

There was the thorough coverage of Gemini Tuesday plus Wednesday's live pictures of the moon, which certainly go far to balance some of TV's less glorious involvement with shoddy entertainment shows, formula writing, trite drama and shrill commercials which so often cheapen the medium.

Arthur Godfrey will become a Broadway actor for the first time when he takes over the

Planes Collide In Flight, 7 Killed

MANILA (AP) — Two U.S. Air Force planes collided in flight today, killing the seven men aboard, Clark Air Base reported.

The collision took place near the U.S. base north of Manila. The twin-engine C47 and the T39, a passenger-cargo jet, crashed and burned in an uninhabited area about a mile east of the base runway.

"There were no survivors among the five officers and two enlisted men aboard the two aircraft," an Air Force spokesman said.

The names of the victims were withheld until their families were notified.

The Air Force opened an investigation.

BOSTON (AP) — Paul S. DeLand, 83, associate editor of the Christian Science Monitor and one of the men who helped found the newspaper in 1908, died Monday. He had served as city editor, financial editor, managing editor and member of the editorial council during his long career with the Monitor.

male lead in the long-running hit, "Never Too Late," on April 5.

Appearing with him will be Maureen O'Sullivan, who opened in the original Broadway cast, but quit the show to take an ill-fated and short fling as NBC's "Today Girl" on the morning news and entertainment program. She quit after 13 weeks.

CRATER RIMS MAY BE SAFER MOON LANDING

By RALPH DIGHTON
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists poring over some of the 5,814 photos taken by Ranger 9 say they indicate the moon's crater rims may provide future astronauts with safer landing areas than would crater plains.

This possibility, advanced Wednesday night by scientists at a Jet Propulsion Laboratory news conference, was based on evidence of possible volcanic activity shown in pictures televised by Ranger 9 Wednesday just before it crashed into the 60-mile-wide crater Alphonsus.

Alphonsus, in a highland area near the center of the face of the moon, is the site of red flashes which some astronomers have interpreted as hot gases escaping through fissures in the lunar crust.

VOLCANIC ACTION

Dr. Gerard P. Kuiper, chief of the scientific team, said many of the thousands of craterlets seen for the first time on Alphonsus' floor were not caused by meteorite impact. "They can only be the result of volcanic activity," he said.

Surprisingly, the smoothest and hardest areas on the moon seem to be crater rims — where there are spots apparently level enough for landings — and ridges found on crater floors, Kuiper said.

Kuiper said he believes the floors of large craters and many of the moon's broad plains are composed of solidified frothy lava which might collapse under the weight of explorers.

"It might well be better to look to the crater walls for potential landing sites," Kuiper said.

The pictures released Wednesday night were taken by cameras other than the one which televised 200 wide-angle photographs live over networks during Ranger 9's final plunge.

TWO WORKMEN HURT IN BLAST

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — The Container Corporation of America plant was ripped by an explosion today that hurled two workmen through a plate glass window and ignited a fire destroying the plant in the Valley Forge industrial park.

Another worker, Daniel Connor, R. 1, Pottstown, was burned over 95 per cent of his body and treated at Montgomery Hospital in early Norristown. Connor ran from the building, his clothing ablaze. One of the men blown from the building rolled Connor in the snow, dousing the flames.

The explosion occurred in a huge plastics processing machine in the southeast corner of the 12,500 square foot building. Tossed through the window were George Ciem, 48, Norristown, a 300-pounder, and Alvin Brown, 18, Norristown.

Both were treated at Montgomery Hospital for minor cuts and bruises.

Anthony Bliski, 40, Spring City, was admitted to Phoenixville Hospital with burns of the back, both arms, face and chest. Uninjured was William Murphy, 50, who was at the plant learning how to operate the machine which blew up.

Only the walls remained in the section where the blast occurred. Most of the roof collapsed.

Chemicals Explode In Phila. Blaze

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A four-alarm fire, punctured by exploding chemical and oil drums, destroyed the three-story Molyneux Co. in North Philadelphia Wednesday night.

The heat and thick black smoke from the exploding chemicals forced firemen to leave their stations at times and seek refuge. No injuries were reported.

Fire officials said they suspected the blaze was set by a homemade Molotov cocktail tossed at the building by one of a gang of young boys.

FTC MAY ASK TIRE MAKERS TO WARN USERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission is considering ordering the nation's tiremakers to tell the public of automobile tire hazards, a government source says.

The possibility of a "disclosure of hazards" order, described by a spokesman Wednesday, arose after the FTC listened to some highly explosive testimony during a two-day hearing in January.

Such an order could touch off a controversy similar to the future over whether the tobacco industry should be required to display warnings that habitual smoking may injure health.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., said in a speech prepared for the Senate today the 800-page transcript of the tire safety hearings documents a "national scandal in automobile tires," and should be made public.

Nelson said the transcript, which the FTC does not intend to print, includes expert testimony that:

— Many new cars come equipped with tires inadequate even for normal use.

— Six-passenger sedans with big trunks are tested for tire purposes with only three passengers and no luggage.

— Sizes stamped on tires do not tell the actual size and were never intended to do so.

Tire manufacturers and independent tire dealers testified at the hearing that the terms "first line," "second line" and "third line" mean something different to each manufacturer.

BLAST REDS IN SOUTH V. NAM

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. jet bombers and fighters flew heavy sorties against suspected Viet Cong positions inside South Viet Nam today. But no air strikes against North Viet Nam were reported.

Vietnamese and U.S. Air Force planes had struck against targets north of the 17th Parallel daily for the past four days.

One of today's strikes by Air Force B57s and F100s was against a suspected major headquarters of the Viet Cong in western Tay Ninh Province, 60 miles northwest of Saigon. Another was in Communist-controlled Binh Dinh Province, 290 miles northwest of the capital.

A U.S. Army officer flying as observer aboard a light plane was killed by a single shot from the ground Wednesday over Quang Ngai Province, about 390 miles north of Saigon. He was dead when the plane landed back at its base.

His death brought the total of American combat dead in Viet Nam since December 1961 to 305.

SNOW, SLEET, COLD AND RAIN IN MANY AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's weather pattern remained mostly on the wintry side today, with more unseasonable cold, snow, sleet and rain.

The winter season ended last Friday but temperatures were below normal in nearly all sections of the country. They ranged up to more than 20 degrees below seasonal levels in northern parts of the Midwest where the mercury dropped to 20 below zero again today. Seasonal marks were reported in the Gulf Coast region, the far Southwest and along the Pacific Coast.

WARM IN ALASKA

In Alaska, Fairbanks reported temperatures of 45 Wednesday compared to the average normal high of 10. It was 55 in Juneau and today's 40 at Anchorage was higher than in some Southern cities. Snow was scarce at Ft. Wainwright. The annual ski review scheduled for Saturday was canceled because of no snow.

A collision of warm moist air from the Gulf and cold air from the North set off rain storms from the Carolinas to Kentucky and Arkansas. North of the rain belt freezing rain pelted along the Ohio River.

LIGHT SNOW

Light snow fell on the snow-covered sections of the southern Great Lakes and in the north central region. A disturbance along the Colorado-New Mexico border caused snow from the central Plains to southern Utah and northern Arizona. Three inches of snow fell in a two-hour period at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Much of the Midwest was blanketed with heavy snow, with snowfalls daily for about a week.

SNOW RECORD

In Chicago, snow amounts for March neared the record of 22.4 inches and also snowfalls for the season were near the record of 66.4 inches set in 1915-52.

Heavy fog, with near-zero visibilities, shrouded areas along the Gulf Coast from the Florida Panhandle to Texas.

Below-zero cold covered areas from northern Lower Michigan and northern Minnesota to Wyoming and Montana. Temperatures dropped to 20 below at Hibbing, Minn., and near that mark at Bozeman, Mont. At the same time it was 78 at Key West, Fla.

3 ARRESTED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Lawyers James B. Tracton and Melvin B. Goldstein and bail bondsman Harry Tolchinskean were arrested Wednesday on charges of conspiracy, blackmail, extortion and illegal solicitation of law cases.

The warrants, issued by Judge Vincent A. Carroll, did not specify details of the charges, which rose from the state's investigation of the Philadelphia magistrates system.

HEARINGS ON BUS BILL ARE CONTINUING

By VINCENT P. CAROCCI
HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate hearings designed to compile a record but produce no spontaneous controversy resumed today on the question of publicly financed bus transportation for non-public school students.

The first of four scheduled hearings on the issue was held here Wednesday by the Senate Education Committee with the testimony both for and against following already established arguments.

"I heard no arguments today that I haven't heard before," said committee chairman Preston B. Davis at the conclusion of the first day of testimony.

However, he added, the hearings would continue despite the fact that it was quite likely the arguments would be repeated in the three remaining sessions.

There are two bills before the committee to require local school districts transporting their students by bus to provide the same service for private and parochial students along established routes.

One bill was introduced by the Scranton Administration in the Senate when the General Assembly convened last Jan. 5. The other was passed in the House two weeks ago at the initiation of the Democrats in that chamber.

135,000 INVOLVED
It is estimated that 135,000 students—most of them Catholic—would benefit if either bill is passed, at an initial cost of $3.7 million to the state.

The Scranton Administration sent in two of its top officials to get the hearings under way and plug for the administration bill.

Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare, repeated the oft-stated position that the bus proposal was not aid to sectarian education, but rather a measure designed to secure the safety of a school child.

Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandro, as if to ward off constitutional arguments that he felt would be raised, told the committee:

"I believe that the bill will be held valid if it is attacked in the courts."

Opponents generally argued that the proposal was unconstitutional because it violated the principle of separation of church and state. It also would cause public funds to be diverted from the public school system, they protested.

The hearings recess after today's session and resume next week for two final days of testimony.

BRITISH PRESS APPROVES U. S. GAS ATTACKS

LONDON (AP) — Approval of the American brand of gas warfare in South Viet Nam began to be heard in Britain today. Three newspapers said it was much better than killing.

First comments Tuesday, and the immediate reaction of scores of members of Parliament, were almost everywhere hostile.

Counterarguments came today from the pro-Labor Daily Mirror, the conservative Daily Mail and the conservative Daily Telegraph.

The Mirror, Britain's biggest daily, commented: "Which is the lesser evil?"

The bomb which makes mincemeat of a man — or the gas which knocks him out by distressing but not lasting discomfort for the afternoon?

"Death at noon — or sickness?"

"Only an inflexible pacifist would have any difficulty in answering."

"But a pacifist might well conclude that if the entire human race could be reduced to tears and vomit for two hours once a month — then maybe the whole world might begin to realize the folly of its ways."

"BENEFICIAL"

Daily Mail commentator Bernard Levin called the development "possibly the most important, exciting, hopeful and beneficial development that has ever occurred in the entire history of the human race."

"What the Americans have done," he said, "is to take in public the first halting step toward something that has eluded mankind since mankind existed — a war that does not kill."

ABA PREXY RAPS LAW VIOLATORS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lew F. Powell Jr., president of the American Bar Association, said Tuesday that willful law violators and those who use civil disobedience instead of courts to challenge laws are "eroding the very foundation of our democracy."

Powell, of Richmond, Va., told the Bar Association of San Francisco and the Lawyers' Club that the increasing crime rate is a national problem.

"The crime rate is increasing five times faster than our population," he said, "but Americans — unless their immediate families are involved — are generally apathetic."

He blamed misconduct of government officials, labor law violations by union officials, anti-trust violations by businessmen, and civil disobedience by civil rights workers for a general disregard for law.

Film Company Sues To Restrict Star

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Ann-Margret is being sued by 20th Century-Fox to prevent her from appearing in an MGM film which might interfere with her work in a remake of "Stage Coach" for 20th.

Lawyers for 20th asked Tues-

Dog Repellant Is Boon To Postmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The postman's best friend, a dog repellant, has increased by 40 per cent the likelihood that he will swiftly complete his appointed rounds in one piece.

That's the progress report Asst. Postmaster General Richard J. Murphy recently gave the House Appropriations Committee.

Dogs sank their teeth into postmen 7,000 times last year, costing them more than $1 million in sick leave and doctor bills, Murphy said. But over the last five months — since the carriers began carrying a repellant which keeps Fido at a distance — disabling dog bites were reduced 40 per cent, Murphy told the committee.

day for a Superior Court injunction against both the actress and MGM. They contend she could not complete her work in the MGM film, "Stage Coach" is to start June 25. Her contract with 20th allows her to do outside work if it does not conflict with studio production schedules.

CONSTITUTION CHANGES ARE BEING OFFERED

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — Proposals for major overhaul of Pennsylvania's 91-year-old Constitution once again are before the Legislature, which has not treated them kindly in the past.

Thirteen bills, the culmination of efforts by the Scranton Administration and the Pennsylvania Bar Association to update the state's basic law, were introduced in the Senate Tuesday. They highlighted light working sessions before the two houses adjourned until next Monday.

The day saw a slight break in the Democratic roadblock against Scranton Administration proposals in the House with committee approval of three administration bills.

HOUSE ROUGHER

Two would permit establishment of geriatric centers to care for the senile elderly and the third would exempt from Sunday sales bans those merchants whose religious beliefs require observance of days other than Sunday as the Sabbath.

House committees were rougher, however, on the administration's bills dealing with community colleges and student loans.

The Higher Education Committee took the Senate - passed community college bill, wrote it into a House bill to provide for 50 per cent state aid on community college capital expenditures and sent it to the floor.

MAVE OWN BILL

The Senate bill, passed to correct a section of the present law declared unconstitutional, would prevent boards of trustees of community colleges from financially obligating sponsoring school districts.

The House committee also favored its own bill on extending state-guaranteed loans to college freshmen and added a $1.4 million appropriation to it.

The new constitutional amendment bills are similar in many ways to the package of 12 bills the administration and the bar association sent to the House two years ago following defeat by the voters of a plan for a convention to rewrite the 1874 Constitution. Only two of those amendments were approved.

2 TERMS OF GOVERNORS

Among other things the amendments would permit two terms, instead of one, for Pennsylvania governors, streamline the legislative process, take the state out of the expensive authority borrowing method by eliminating the Commonwealth's $1 million debt limitation and repeal a host of archaic sections no longer applicable.

Constitutional amendments must be passed by two successively elected legislatures and then approved by a vote of the people. Amendments passed this year would have to wait for another legislative round in 1967 before going to the people.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Other highlights:

Milk Prices — A bill to end consumer milk price controls and replace the Milk Control Commission with a milk stabilization board was introduced in the House with the bipartisan sponsorship of 30 members. An identical bill was offered in the Senate Monday.

Parental Responsibility — The Senate passed 32-12 after 65 minutes' debate a bill that would make parents financially responsible for willful and malicious damage caused by children under 18 years.

Election Reform — The Advisory Commission on Elections and Election Laws submitted to the Legislature a 140-page report of

Jakarta Resumes Handling Cables

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The government telegraph office in Jakarta has resumed handling of cables to and from the American embassy, American news agencies and correspondents for American newspapers.

Telegraph workers had imposed a boycott on the Americans' incoming and outgoing messages Tuesday on instructions from Sobri, the labor wing of the Indonesian Communist party. Foreign Minister Subandrio ordered the ban lifted.

Sobri ordered the boycotts as part of the Communist campaign of harassment of Americans in Indonesia.

FIRST CASUALTY

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Australia has suffered its first casualties in the Borneo war between Indonesia and Malaysia. An army sergeant was killed and two soldiers were injured Tuesday by a mine or booby trap.

its year-long study. It recommended more than a dozen major changes in election day proceedings, but legislation will not be introduced until legislative leaders have been consulted.

PACKAGE OF HEALTH BILLS IS ADVANCED

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — An unprecedented package of health benefits and pension increases for the aged, hearing the approval of the House Ways and Means Committee and welcomed by President Johnson, headed today for an early vote in the House.

The committee, altered by Democratic gains in last year's election, cleared Tuesday a $6-billion measure containing Johnson's plan for hospitalization paid for by a payroll tax — and much more.

Hospitalization for all over 65; an optional contributory plan to help pay other health expenses; liberalization of the state-federal system of health care of the indigent and low-income groups; and across-the-board 7 per cent increase in old age payments under Social Security.

"TREMENDOUS STEP" — In a statement released by the White House Tuesday night, the President hailed the health bill approved by the House committee as "a tremendous step forward for all of our senior citizens." He called it a financially sound bill, and one which will benefit the entire nation.

"It is my hope that many Republicans will join with the Democrats in voting for this very fine bill," he said.

The committee set a meeting today for final formalities and leaders planned to bring the measure to the floor by the first week of April, at the latest.

STIFF RISE IN TAXES

The financing involves a stiff rise in the payroll tax levied for Social Security. Next year's maximum payment by an employee would be up $69.60 from this year's with more to come.

Also, in the first full year of operation, there would be a $1-billion dip into the general Treasury.

The health benefits of the bill fall into three main sections.

First is a basic hospitalization protection — 60 days per illness plus 20 days in a nursing home for recuperation, or longer in the nursing home if the hospital benefit is not all used. All those over 65 would be eligible, whether or not retired or in need. Each patient would pay the first $40. The plan would go into effect July 1, 1968.

Next there would be a program for which the aged could sign up if they wished. It would cost $3 a month in premiums, and the patient would pay the first $50. Doctors' visits, X-ray and laboratory fees and a variety of other health expenses — but not medicines prescribed for home use — would be covered. The effective date would be the same.

For those cared for by welfare programs and by the existing Kerr-Mills Act for aid to persons so close to the poverty level that medical bills would ruin them, there also would be help. The federal government, which now contributes 50 to 80 per cent of the cost of existing programs in various states, would step up its contributions to 55 to 83 per cent. Eligibility would be eased, especially by substituting a flexible income test for the general means tests now in use in some states.

Canadian Bomber Crashes; 16 Lost

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP) — A four-engine Canadian air force reconnaissance bomber with 16 crewmen aboard crashed Tuesday night about 60 miles north of San Juan, P.R., the air force announced.

First reports indicated there were no survivors.

7 CHILDREN DIE IN BLAZE

BELCHERTOWN, Mass. (AP) — Seven children died Tuesday night in a fire which swept their farm home. Mrs. Arthur Berthiaume, who discovered the blaze, roused her husband by breaking a window. They rescued one daughter, Linda.

The dead were tentatively identified as daughters Alice, Barbara, Mary Jane, Donna and Susan, a son, Arthur Jr., and an infant. They ranged in age from seven months to 10 years.

The parents and Linda were taken to a hospital for treatment of burns.

Officials said Mrs. Berthiaume discovered the fire upon her return from work at a knitting mill in Palmer.

The plane, an Argus, was stationed at Greenwood, N.S. It was operating from the U.S. Naval Air Station near San Juan in a U.S.-Canadian antisubmarine warfare exercise called Maple Spring.

The Canadian destroyer escorts Gatineau and Terra Nova were ordered to the crash area.

The average ostrich egg weighs 3.5 pounds.

URGE FORMULA ON HIGHWAYS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Three Senate Democrats proposed to take discretion for highway construction out of the hands of the Highways Department.

They introduced a bill Tuesday which would require that highway funds be spent each year according to a set formula.

Under their bill, one-third of the highway funds would be spent on the basis of population of the counties; another third according to the existing mileage in a county; the final third according to need as determined by the governor and the State Highway Commission.

Sen. William J. Lane, Washington, one of the sponsors, said the bill was designed to insure that each county received what it deserved in highway expenditures.

Other sponsors were Sen. William G. Sesler, Erie, and Justin D. Jiroianio, Northampton.

CARLETONVILLE, South Africa (AP) — A methane gas explosion 8,000 feet underground killed nine African workers in a gold mine here Wednesday.

MAE MURRAY DIES TUESDAY AT AGE OF 75

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mae Murray, the silent screen's blonde with the bee-stung lips who made $3 million and spent every penny, is dead at 75.

Miss Murray, who married four times, was a symbol of roaring 20s gaiety who never ceased regarding herself as a celebrity although her career did not extend into the era of talking pictures.

She succumbed Tuesday at the Motion Picture Country Home to a long illness that followed a stroke and a heart ailment.

"You don't have to keep making movies to remain a star," she said several years ago. "Once you become a star, you are always a star."

Her most famous film was "The Merry Widow," in which she starred with John Gilbert, with Erich von Stroheim as director.

At her peak, she earned $10,000 a week and was one of Hollywood's highest-paid stars. She maintained lavish homes and entertained extravagantly.

As her glittering era passed, her income declined. In 1926, she estimated her fortune at $3 million.

WAS PENNILESS
Ten years later, she said, she sat penniless for three days on a bench in New York's Central Park.

In the mid 50s she wrote her memoirs, "The Self-Enchanted."

Born Marie Adrienne Koenig May 10, 1889, in Portsmouth, Va., she danced in New York shows as a teen-ager. Florenz Ziegfeld featured her in his Follies of 1908, 1909 and 1915.

Her marriages were to William Schwenker Jr., a gate-man; Jay O'Brien, a Pasadena broker; film director Robert Z. Leonard, and Prince David M'divani.

A son by M'divani, Daniel M. Cunningham, is her only living relative. He operates a shoe store in Troy, N.Y.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday in a mortuary chapel.

BILLS OK'D BY COMMITTEES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation to establish geriatrics centers for the treatment of the senile elderly is the first major Scranton administration proposal to reach the floor of the House.

The House Committee on Public Health and Welfare gave the Senate-approved package preliminary approval Tuesday, breaking the House log-jam on administration bills.

Other bills given committee approval and sent to the floor would:

—Provide overtime pay for third class city policemen.

—Define and prohibit speed traps.

—Extend to nurses the protection provided to doctors who go out of their way to aid persons in distress.

—Change the formula for distribution of motor fuel tax shares to municipalities from the present 60 per cent mileage and 40 per cent population to a 50-50 basis.

PRINCESS ENDS TOUR
LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowden, returned to London Tuesday night from a trip to Uganda with two unusual souvenirs: two elephant tusks and a large stalk of bananas.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Formation of a group to promote revision of the state Constitution was announced Tuesday in Philadelphia. The group is known as "A Modern Constitution for Pennsylvania, Inc." and its function will be primarily educational, according to its president Richard C. Bond.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

The last vestiges of unrealistic makeups, those frightening eyes and faded lips, departed on the winds of winter. There's a new look and it has the quality of a born-beauty, the same fresh springtime radiance. Just as should be!

Faces that appear naturally lovely are far more beguiling than trumped up facades. And that is so at all ages from teen to no-telling.

Fashion models, already espousing the makeup, have found that it is not necessarily achieved by using fewer cosmetics but rather through new textures and shades. Here's a rundown on the main elements.

● Start with a translucent foundation in a pastel beige, warmed with peach tones. If more coverage is needed, apply a second film. Two thin coats are preferable to a single masky one.

● Powder with a shade that lies invisible on the skin.

● Highlight the cheekbones with a blusher, using the gentlest honey-peach color and the gentlest strokes.

● To set off the eyes, smooth ivory-beige shadow on the lids from lashes to brows. Complement the scheme with brown or charcoal liner, brown or black mascara.

● Finish with glowing pink lipstick, sun-kissed to a near-peach shade. Then check the effect: Is it akin to nature's best efforts? If not, try and try again.

A LOVELIER COMPLEXION

Whatever your skin problems, to find a solution send for my booklet, "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION." Detailed advice contained includes the correct care for dry, oily, combination and normal skin types; proper application methods; treatments for blackheads, enlarged pores, circles, wrinkles, creases, etc. For your copy of "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION," write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a L A R G E, SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE and 20c in coin to cover cost and handling.

"OLD FAKE" IS BEING RAZED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia's "old mint building"—also known as the "grand old fake"—is being razed to make way for a new $42.6 million federal courthouse and office building.

It's a six-story building that has long claimed, without proof, that it is America's first mint, built in 1792.

The words "old mint building" and the alleged construction date are carved into the stone front. Also carved into the stone are six Indian head pennies.

The pennies prove the building's claim to fame is a fake. Indian heads weren't minted until 1864. Actually, it went up in 1911, and was called "the old mint building" because it was constructed on the site of the first mint near historic Independence Hall.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Directors of the Philadelphia Transportation Co. have turned down, for the time being at least, a 25-cent-a-share dividend. If paid it would have amounted to $427,000 and been the first by the transit firm since 1963.

ROME (AP) — Mario Bonnard, 76, noted Italian actor of the silent screen and later a director, died Monday of a heart attack.

"QUALIFIED" NEGROES MAY BE REGISTERED

By REX THOMAS

FORT DEPOSIT, Ala. (AP) — A member of the Lowndes County Board of Registrars says any qualified Negro can register to vote in the rural county which is one of the targets of Dr. Martin Luther King's voter-registration drive.

"Our policy on the board," said board member Carl Goldson, "is just this: If they can qualify, we're going to put them on. As a matter of fact, that's been our policy for some time, but we just haven't had any applicants."

He continued, "We're not going to worry about this voucher business. We know the Negroes who are likely to qualify and we know how long they have lived here."

NEED VOUCHERS

Lowndes County, like most others in Alabama, has a rule which requires registered voters to vouch for those seeking to register. The voucher is required to verify that the applicant has lived in the state at least one year, in the county six months and the precinct 90 days. Those are the resident qualifications fixed by law.

Negro leaders have complained that the voucher rule has kept Negroes from registering in Lowndes and neighboring Wilcox counties because there were no Negro voters to act as vouchers.

STATE APPROVES WASTE PERMITS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Sanitary Water Board Tuesday approved industrial waste permits for the following:

Northumberland — State Coal Co., Inc., Mount Carmel Twp., cleaning plant to remove silt wastes. Discharge to a tributary of Quaker Run (Susquehanna Basin).

Tioga — United Creameries, Inc., Middlebury Twp., plant to process dairy wastes with discharge to Norris Brook (Tioga Basin).

York — P. H. Glatfelter Co., Spring Grove, treatment of pulp and paper mill, and general mill wastes with discharge to the west branch of Codorus Creek. The permit was issued on the condition that dissolved oxygen concentration of three milligrams per liter be maintained in the stream at all times.

CAPE ELIZABETH, Maine (AP) — William H. Doherty, 60, former Washington newsman and lawyer, died Tuesday. He started his news career with the Washington Post in 1925 and later worked for The Associated Press, International News Service and the Columbia Broadcasting System in Washington. He was born in La Crosse, Wis.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By R. P. M. MacPHERSON

MORE ABOUT THE KIMMEL FAMILY

Intermarriage and family relationships combine to make a most interesting study. Events make history — people make events and to this there can be only one answer — the preservation, care and study of the old burial grounds, both public and private, form a most important facet — hitherto rather neglected — in the study of history. Historians are becoming aware — at a somewhat late date — of the importance of this. These historic plots of ground are a mute witness to the past.

The history of the James Kimmel family burial plot is continued at this time.

When Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, "a native of Baltimore, Maryland," married, on October 19, 1822, Sydney Ann James, the daughter of Major Daniel and Margaret (Clemson) James, two of Maryland's finest families, "linked blood lines." The bridegroom bought lands, adjoining the plantation of his wife's family, and came to live "on the Langanore." In the course of time he became a most successful farmer and outstanding citizen of the district. T. J. C. Williams in his history of Frederick County (1910) had this to say of General Kimmel: "Anthony Z. Kimmel, deceased, was the progenitor of the family in Maryland. He was born March 17, 1746 in Mannheim, Germany, from which place his father, with six brothers, emigrated in 1750 to America. They first settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, but later in the second generation, Anthony Kimmel moved to Maryland.

"This second Anthony Kimmel settled in Baltimore and there engaged in the hardware business and banking. Major-General Anthony Kimmel, son of the pioneer Baltimore settler, was born in that city, March 22, 1798. He received his education at St. Mary's College, and afterwards engaged, with his brother, Michael Kimmel, in the family business interests. Sometime later he withdrew from this and came to live in Frederick County, Maryland. After his marriage into an old county family he bought lands and became a most successful agriculturist. His thrifty husbandry won for him the well-merited title 'The Farmer of the Langanore.'

"For more than ten years General Kimmel was vice-president of the county, state and national agricultural societies.

He became a Mason in 1819 and filled many high offices in that organization.

"Having entered politics early in life as a Federalist general, Kimmel served his party in many capacities.

"As a soldier, General Kimmel's record is an honorable one. He was but a boy when he volunteered, and assisted in erecting fortifications to defend his native city. He also participated in the Battle of North Point. Later, in 1822, he was commissioned by Governor Hicks, a major-general, commanding the Fourth Battalion of Maryland Militia.

"General Kimmel was, by birth and breeding, essentially a gentleman. While living on Langanore's beautiful banks, he dispensed the rites of rural hospitality with grace and dignity. Truly may it be said of him that the doors of his mansion swung upon the hinges of hospitality; and they opened to welcome a wayward and distressed stranger as readily as to entertain a friend, a neighbor, or a brother. He remained hale and hearty to the last. He died in 1871 and was interred in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore, Maryland, with other members of his family. He was an Episcopalian as was his wife, and their only surviving child, Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, the fourth."

The marble slab that covers the grave of Sydney Ann (James) Kimmel, the wife of General Kimmel, was recently unearthed in the family burial ground. The inscription from this rather elaborate marker was given in last week's column. The row of graves, along the south wall, are those of the wife and mother and five of the six children born to General Kimmel and his wife. The inscriptions follow:

9. "The Remains — of — the Dead Born — Infant — of — Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann — Kimmel — June 21, 1829."

Note:—According to the dates of the other children, as given on their gravestones, the "Dead Born Infant" mentioned above, was the third child born to the Kimmels. Since the baby never lived it is not included in the family genealogy. This is apparent in the inscriptions from the markers at the graves of its brothers and sisters.

10. "The Remains — of — Alfred James Kimmel — First Child of — Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann Kimmel — Born November 22, 1823 — Died September 21, 1825 — Aged 1 year, 9 months, — and 29 days."

11. "The Remains — of — Hampden James Kimmel — Second Child of — Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann Kimmel — Born December 22, 1825 — Died August 20, 1830 — Aged 4 years, 7 months, — and 21 days."

12. "The Remains — of — Marion Louise Kimmel — Fourth Child of — Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann Kimmel — Born August 28, 1833 — Died April 1, 1837 — Aged 3 years, 7 months, — 3 days."

13. "The Remains — of — Edmund Clemson Kimmel — the Third Child of — Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann Kimmel — Born February 21, 1831 — Died April 16, 1837 — Aged 6 years, 1 month, — and 23 days."

From the James - Kimmel house, located a short distance due south of the family burial ground, Sydney Ann (James) Kimmel could see the graves of her children. What grief it must have caused her to bury them one by one — until only her last-born son, another Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, remained. Finally, some 11 years after the death of her fifth child, the mother joined her dead babies and was buried at the end of the row — in the southwest corner. Her grave is almost hidden by a large Cedar of Lebanon tree, brought by her husband from the Holy Land, and planted by him near the grave of his wife.

Along the east wall of the family burial ground are the graves of the fourth Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, his wife, Mary (Morgan) Kimmel, and two of their children.

14. "In memory of — Anthony Zaarr Kimmel — Born July 22, 1836 — Died March 13, 1897 — Aged 60 years, 4 months, — 10 days."

Note:—From all the evidence available this was the last child born to General Anthony Z. and Sydney Ann (James) Kimmel and the only one who lived to maturity. He was only about 12 years of age at the time of his mother's death.

The notes on the Kimmel - James - Clemson families will be continued in this column next week.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mayor James H. Tate says he will delay early morning closings of three stations of the Broad Street subway until he can meet with members of City Council to discuss the plan. Tate said earlier the Philadelphia Transportation Co. had agreed to closing the stations from 12:30 a.m. to 5 a.m. to protect passengers.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Former Mayor Richardson Dilworth says that if the domed stadium proves successful in Houston, Philadelphia should install one.

Speaking Wednesday to the Philadelphia board of realtors Dilworth said if the idea works in Houston and Philadelphia does not use a dome on its proposed stadium "then we are as backward as people in other cities used to say we were. If we don't spend the money then we ought to have our heads examined."

Methodists Will Get New Leader

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Rev. Martin W. Hopkins, pastor of Calvary Methodist Church since 1954, will become Harrisburg district superintendent of the Methodist Church on June 20.

Mr. Hopkins will succeed Dr. Edgar A. Henry, who is completing a six-year term in that post. The appointment was announced Tuesday.

At the same time, it was announced that the Central Pennsylvania Conference will hold its annual meeting at Dickinson College in Carlisle June 16-20. Dr. Henry's new assignment and the new minister at Calvary Church will be announced, along with several other ministerial appointments, on the concluding day.

A four-page letter, written by Washington in 1776 to his cousin Lund Washington, recently sold for $17,000.

STUDENT, 70, DIES IN CLASS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 70-year-old widow, studying for a high school diploma, died Wednesday in her algebra class.

Mrs. Lessie Spurlock, who celebrated her 70th birthday March 2, had graduated from high school in Darlington, S.C., but her records were destroyed by fire.

She enrolled in Temple High School here last year seeking a new diploma which she needed to obtain a degree from the Philadelphia School of Bible, where she had already completed her studies. She had planned to go on to attend Temple University.

"It is a real shame," said Ralph Krebs, director of Temple High. "She was doing quite well in her classes and the younger students had great respect for her. She got along well with everybody."

She would have graduated from Temple High and the Bible School next January.

Phila. Stations Given Awards

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Inquirer, television station WCAU and radio station WDAS have received awards for outstanding public service during 1964.

The greater Philadelphia chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, presented its first annual awards to the newspaper and two Philadelphia stations Wednesday night.

The Inquirer was cited for a series of six articles that resulted in a state investigation of the city's Magistrate System. The award to WCAU-TV was for a 30-minute special news report, "Stacked Deck," that examined causes of juvenile delinquency.

WDAS was honored for its coverage of the North Philadelphia riots, which broke out August 28, 1963. The station covered the riots for 56 straight hours.

Counterfeiter Is Held On Bail

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Nicholas A. DeVito has been held in $500 bail on charges of passing counterfeit bills.

DeVito was held for a further hearing Wednesday after Secret Service agents testified that he passed a fake $20 bill at a Lit Brothers store in nearby Lawrence Park, Delaware County.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Ross C. Crumlish said stores in the Philadelphia area, including some in Pennsauken, N.J., just across the Delaware River, had received phony $10 and $20 bills.

Last year 79,000 auto tires were sold in the U.S.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's honeymoon with history is over but, while he can't be blamed for the woes piling up on him, they are his now to do with as he can.

What he can do about some of them must trouble him sorely, for he has to mix hope with action in trying to put a man on the moon ahead of the Soviet Union, solving the civil rights uproar and achieving some kind of peace in Viet Nam.

He was happily free of crises anywhere from the time he took office 16 months ago until early this year, although they were bound to come. It was as if men and events had agreed to let him get used to his job.

WANTED TRUCE
The slow melting of Viet Nam under Communist fire began in the Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy administrations, not in Johnson's. It just got worse in his until this country had to decide to put up or shut up.

Johnson's decision to step up the war, with direct and open American participation and air attacks on North Viet Nam, was intended to make the North Vietnamese sue for a truce.

Then and now Johnson couldn't know whether his decision would bring Red China and the Soviet Union to North Viet Nam's aid, thus turning a little war into a big one, although he soon had one thing in his favor.

Russian-Red Chinese relations got worse and the American action in Viet Nam seemed to intensify it.

BASED ON HOPE

The Negro demands for full civil rights had their beginnings in the Eisenhower administration, grew stronger in President Kennedy's time, and then boiled up and spilled over on Johnson.

In an effort to calm the waters before there is more and even worse violence, Johnson asked Congress to pass a strong bill to protect Negroes' voting rights. This, too, is based on hope.

But here again Johnson had something working for him.

While many white Southerners may be angry at his strong stand in behalf of Negroes, he didn't offer his bill until he knew he had strong Northern support, which will be a big help in getting the bill through.

In the midst of all this came the unpleasant reminder that the Russians are ahead in space and that therefore the country will be expecting Johnson to do something about it, although probably not one in a million could say what.

Last week, just as the United States was getting ready to turn loose a non-manned moon shot and then send a two-man team into orbit in a Gemini spacecraft, the Russians put on a show far outshining what Americans could do.

They not only sent a two-man space team aloft but one of the men got out and floated and somersaulted in space, with the whole spectacle seen on television screens in the Soviet Union and Europe through a television camera on the spacecraft.

The Russian timing, just before the American space shots, was hardly an accident and therefore, in demonstrating Russian superiority, must have been doubly galling to Johnson.

AHEAD FOR YEARS

Yet, the Russians have been ahead for years, in President Eisenhower's time and in Kennedy's, too, even though the United States has been trying to catch up and close the gap that goes back to the 1950s.

Perhaps there is less gap. Clivian space chief James E. Webb said Monday this country plans to have an American astronaut "walk" in space within a year.

But the big test is still in getting a man to the moon first. Webb said he thought this country might be able to do it within this decade but he didn't say the Russians wouldn't do it sooner.

It would be a great climax to Johnson's first four-year term if this country could do it first by 1968, which is also a presidential election year.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Oscar B. Griggs of Devon has joined the staff of the State Health Department at an annual salary of $15,387, it was announced Tuesday. He will serve as chief of the Diagnostic and Clinic Services section of the Division of Tuberculosis Control.

House Passes Bill On Carbide Tires

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislation aimed at clearing up any more confusion over the legality of carbide tire studs for winter driving headed for the Senate today after winning passage in the House.

The bill, passed 176-28 Monday, would spell it out in the law that carbide studs are legal, as long as they do not protrude three-32nds of an inch beyond the tread of the tire.

Studded tires were the subject of much confusion in Pennsylvania last winter and required a ruling from Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandro to make them legal.

ly have lost some support because of the fighting inside the party over Diefenbaker's leadership and over the new maple leaf flag—approved over Diefenbaker's opposition.

It is taken for granted that the Conservatives would attempt to turn the Ottawa scandals—mainly involving influence peddling—into a major campaign issue.

On the other side of the picture is the desire of the Liberals to take full advantage of a split in the Conservative party. By waiting another year they run the risk of having to campaign against a unified party, headed by a new and perhaps popular leader.

PEARSON MAY CALL ELECTION FOR CANADIANS

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (AP) — After 23 months in office, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson is weighing the possibility of calling an election in June in the hope of gaining a parliamentary majority for his Liberal party.

Although prospects for a smashing Liberal victory are not good, some party strategists see even more of a gamble to postponing the election.

In fact, the opposition might force an election by a vote of no confidence if the prime minister hesitates too long.

MORE ENTHUSIASTIC

John G. Diefenbaker, 69, Conservative leader, appears more enthusiastic about an election than Pearson, possibly because Diefenbaker's leadership is threatened. He may not lead the Conservatives if the election is deferred.

Pearson has never taken much to campaigning. He is 68 and is not overly enthusiastic about a campaign next year or the year after. Other factors, however, weigh against an early election.

Strategists of the two big parties have been somewhat shaken by the results of a recent poll which indicated both had lost ground politically since January.

MANY UNDECIDED

A significant factor in the poll was the almost unprecedented number of voters who hadn't made up their minds. Three out of 10 reporting said they didn't know how they would vote if the election were held now.

A Montreal Star editorial commented:

"If this country is confused, it has every justification for its confusion, and nothing that has happened recently in the two main political parties has served to lessen it."

SHOULD TAKE CHANCE

The Montreal Gazette said it was hard to see where Pearson could hope to make gains, but the Liberal party "should give both itself and the country a chance to see what can be done."

The Liberals now hold only 129 of the 265 seats in the House of Commons. The Conservatives hold 95. Minor parties and an independent account for the others.

It generally is believed that the Liberals have been hurt by scandals which brought the resignation of one Cabinet minister and one top aide in the prime minister's office.

The Conservatives undoubtedly

HONOR TRUCKER ON HIS RECORD

HARRISBURG (AP) — An Allentown truck driver was honored for his 23-year safe driving record today — a record described as equivalent to 115 years of accident-free driving by the average motorist.

The driver, Paul Hartman, who has driven a million and a half miles without an accident, was presented the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association's "Driver of the Year" award by Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer.

Hartman drives a tractor-trailer for Modern Transfer Co., Inc., of Allentown.

He was selected by an independent board of judges which included state government officials, the state police, motor clubs, and newspaper publishers.

WILL REPLACE EARL PITZER IN STATE JOB

HARRISBURG (AP) — State police Capt. Benjamin O. Lichty will resign soon to become assistant commissioner of traffic safety in the Revenue Department.

The appointment of Lichty to the $12,675-a-year post was announced Wednesday by Gov. Scranton.

Lichty, commander of the state police turnpike division, will replace H. Earl Pitzer, who resigned under fire last December as director of enforcement for the Traffic Safety Bureau.

Pitzer and James S. Cozens, assistant enforcement director, were forced to resign following disclosure of 39 missing motor vehicle arrest reports.

Lichty will assume his new duties April 1.

The statement from the governor's office did not include Lichty's age. State police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy said Lichty is close to the retirement age of 60.

TO ASSIST BRAINERD

Scranton said Lichty will act as assistant to Traffic Safety Commissioner Harry H. Brainerd in law enforcement and other activities.

The governor said that as chief law enforcement officer on the turnpike since June, 1963, Lichty is credited with helping establish one of the best highway safety records of any toll road in the nation.

SPURT PUSHES ECONOMY UP TO SURPRISE HIGH

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst NEW YORK (AP) — The final days of the year's first quarter are seeing a spurt that is pushing the nation's economy to an unexpectedly high level. It is making this spectacular gain with the help of some unusual incentives, such as fear of a steel strike, but also in the face of some setbacks that normally would have dragged it down.

First estimates put the gain in the first three months of 1965 as perhaps the largest since World War II.

This was accomplished despite:

Blizzards that cut factory production, notably of autos, at times in the industrial Midwest and Northeast;

HELPED BY NERVOUSNESS

Dock strikes that for weeks paralyzed traffic in and out of Atlantic and Gulf ports and stymied production of export goods, and an up and down stock market that reflected investor — and business — concern over international developments and over the very age of the present business upswing, now into its fifth year.

The economy admittedly has been helped by nervousness over a steel strike deadline May 1 which has led users to try to build up inventories as a hedge and record auto production and sales with much of the demand, at least in the first weeks of the year, traceable to catching up after the auto strikes of last fall.

But steel's record production now is due to other things besides just strike hedging. Use of the steel has risen so high that purchasing agents haven't been able to build up the inventories they set as goals.

AUTO SALES HIGH

Auto sales are running far above a year ago, with last fall's strikes almost forgotten. Latest sales figures show some models running ahead of this time last year by from 19 to 36 percent.

Spending for new construction, despite lagging housing demand, is now running well above the first year as well as far above year ago figures.

The economy's big upward surge thus seems tied to other things than just nervousness over labor troubles in the offing or effects of past strikes.

FIRST LIQUOR STORE OPENED

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — Meredith Coldren, manager of this Centre County borough's first state liquor store, says the first day's business was brisk—to say the least.

"There were more than 20 people in line when we opened (Wednesday)," Coldren said. "That was at 10 a.m., and by 2 p.m. we had more than 200 in here."

Incorporated in 1896, State College (pop. 27,576) had never had a liquor store. Only malt beverages were sold.

The borough is the home of Pennsylvania State University. Establishment of the store had been protested by a group of Protestant ministers and local citizens at a hearing in Harrisburg before the State Liquor Control Board.

Prior to Wednesday's opening, State College residents drove to Bellefonte to buy their liquor—a round trip of more than 20 miles.

DRAW BRIDGE PLANS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Highways Department is preparing plans for a proposed $965,000 bridge to take Route 17 over Juniata River and Pennsylvania Railroad tracks in Tuscarora Twp., Perry County.

Construction of the new bridge was ordered Wednesday by the Public Utility Commission. The PUC said the span would replace two separate structures and eliminate a hazardous section of roadway.

TO OFFER LOANS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Medical Society says it will offer low interest tuition loans to medical school students who qualify.

The announcement was made here Wednesday by Dr. W. Benson Harer of the society's Educational Committee. The loans are made available from monies contributed by Pennsylvania physicians.

Don't try to broil steak that is less than one-inch thick; pan-fry it on the top of the range.

A possible test case developed when one farmer's horses were seized to enforce a tax claim. The case never came to trial, however, apparently also because of religious scruples. But apparently public reaction led the government to suspend further collection efforts and give the matter to Congress to settle.

About 1,500 delinquent Amish tax accounts have accumulated, involving about $250,000.

The new social security bill, the same one that contains health insurance measures and a social security increase, includes a section for the relief of the Old Order Amish and possibly other religious groups.

It would provide that self-employed person may take himself out of the social security system if he is a member of a recognized religious sect, which is conscientiously opposed to public and private insurance, including social security.

A few smaller religious groups may also be covered. The Senate passed a similar amendment last year to a bill that never became a law, so chances for the relief looks good this year.

Tests Reveal Conditions Nuclear-Tipped Missiles Face When Fired In Air

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Far beneath the Nevada desert, the United States has developed means of simulating the altitude conditions a nuclear-tipped missile would encounter if detonated at nearly 100 miles above the earth.

This was learned today in an interview with Brig. Gen. Delmar L. Crowson, director of the Atomic Energy Commission's Division of Military Application.

All indications are that such a manmade creation — deep within the earth — of the vacuum at the fringes of outer space is designed to:

HELP DEFENSES

—Help further improve America's defenses against enemy missiles.

—Enhance the power of U.S. missiles to penetrate an enemy's electronic and other defenses.

Crowson said further that deep drilling techniques developed for underground nuclear tests at Nevada and elsewhere have a rich potential pay-off to peacetime industry, especially the oil and construction industries.

The general discussed the novel nuclear weapons testing technique in amplifying somewhat the AEC's recent disclosures that "significant progress" has been made in improving America's nuclear defensive and offensive capabilities through underground testing. The limited test-ban treaty excludes all but underground testing.

FILE REPORT

The AEC recently reported to Congress:

—Development and deployment of new, more powerful and versatile nuclear bombs and long-range missiles.

—Significant progress toward further increasing the "hardness and penetration capability" of the missile warheads — that is their powers to penetrate enemy defenses and to withstand countermeasures.

—Further advances in the art of developing relatively "clean" weapons — that is, those having less radioactive fallout.

—New progress toward improving capabilities for detecting underground tests by other nations.

UNDERGROUND ROOMS

Crowson said one of the major techniques developed for under-

EUROPE JOINS RED ATTACK ON GAS WARFARE

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — Non-Communists in Europe joined the Communists today in attacking the use of nonlethal gas by U.S.

ground testing is the carving out of huge subterranean rooms, with tunnels radiating from them, much like spokes of a wheel. These rooms range up to 900 cubic yards in size.

Nearly all air can be pumped out of large-diameter pipes in the rooms to create vacuum conditions. Weapons devices can be detonated under conditions simulating an altitude of up to 400,000 or 500,000 feet, the general said.

and Vietnamese forces in South Viet Nam.

Nearly 50 Laborite members of the British Parliament and three Liberals petitioned Prime Minister Harold Wilson to express disapproval of the use of gas and napalm fire bombs against the Communist guerrillas.

The petitioners included Philip Noel Baker, winner of the 1959 Nobel Peace Prize, and Arthur Blenkinsop vice chairman of the Labor party's members of the House of Commons.

PRESS UNEASY

Some British newspapers considered the U.S. tactic a propaganda boon to the Communists. Others expressed uneasiness about it.

"Whatever the arguments of legality and humanity, political-ly this new development looks foolish to the point of demerit," said the liberal Guardian.

In Paris, the influential evening newspaper Le Monde took issue with an unidentified U.S. officer who said one problem is to accustom the public to the idea of employing nonlethal gas. CRITICIZES U. S.

"The problem is not to 'accustom the public to this idea' but to speak up against the use of methods of warfare even more criticizable than others," Le Monde said. "The Americans now will be badly placed to denounce the forms of warfare taken by the campaign of the Viet Cong."

ACCUSES BRUTALITY

Moscow Radio accused the United States of "using increasingly barbarous methods — in particular waging chemical warfare."

The Japanese pro-Peking Communist newspaper Red Flag said the United States has "finally used poison gas in a naked show of brutality."

In Washington, Defense Department officials said the gas being used in South Viet Nam is

5 BUILDINGS ARE BURNED IN WILKES-BARRE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—

Ashes and ruins of five buildings from a $10 million fire blackened a section of downtown Wilkes-Barre today.

Fire officials described Tuesday's fire as the worst in the city's history. It raged out of control for five hours.

Stanley Kocyan, president of a compound of chemical agents of a type the U.S. Army has employed for about 40 years. They said it was a form of tear gas with no relation to dreaded nerve gases and other such incapacitating agents which the United States has developed and stockpiled.

the Wilkes-Barre Businessman's Association, estimated the fire caused $10 million in damage. He said it destroyed large quantities of Easter stock.

COLLEGE CLOSED

Besides the five buildings that were wrecked, three others were damaged.

At least 14 businesses and the Wilkes-Barre Business College closed for the day because of the flames and heavy smoke that was so dense firemen used lights for a while.

Mayor Frank Slattery, who arrived at the scene shortly after noon, was slightly injured when glass showered on him after an explosion. He was treated at Wilkes-Barre hospital and returned to the fire.

RENEWED BY EXPLOSION

Assistant fire chief Edward Jacobson and fireman Robert Weil, were taken to the hospital for treatment of smoke inhalation.

Fire officials said the fire started about 10 a.m. in a three-story structure housing the White Cross Discount drug store a block south of Main Street in central city.

Firemen had the blaze nearly under control about noon when an explosion rocked the drug building, starting the fire again.

Besides the drug building, other structures wrecked were the Hub Clothing Store, the Hug Warehouse, the Carlson Building and the Rosenthal Building. The buildings housed at least nine businesses.

KILLED ENROUTE TO WAKE

RENSSELAER, N.Y., (AP) — Muriel Balsan, 64, was struck and killed by an automobile driven by her son-in-law Tuesday as he prepared to take her to a wake for his mother.

Police said Merlin Stone, 48, of Schodack Landing had gone to Mrs. Balsan's home. She was crossing in front of the car, police said, when it accidentally lurched forward.
